FOREWORD

At a regular meeting of Oriental Consistory, held on March 16, 1905, in view of the approaching semi-centennial anniversary of the institution of the co-ordinate bodies of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in Chicago, the following resolution was adopted:

"WHEREAS, It seems desirable and proper that the collecting and presenting in durable form of the facts, incidents and data relating to the history of these bodies for the past fifty years, and of the Rite in general, should be made at this period and in such manner as to be accessible and beneficial to our membership, therefore be it

"Resolved, That the librarian of this Consistory be directed to prepare such matter as may be of usefulness in connection with the subject and that it be printed and issued under the direction of the Grand Secretary for general distribution and in such number as shall be deemed desirable."

In pursuance of such resolution this book has been compiled.

The task, however, has been one of great difficulty, owing to the almost utter dearth of historical material relating to the origin and early years of the several bodies. But from such scant data as are now available an attempt has been made to show, in a connected manner, the introduction and subsequent general course of the Rite in Chicago, together with such incidental matters as seemed to possess historic interest. From the time of the Great Fire in 1871 until the present, there are complete records of the transactions of the bodies, and to these records frequent recurrence has been had. But, at best, these later records present but little for the historian's pen. The regular routine has been observed and the bodies have all moved quietly in their accustomed grooves with no disturbing influences from either without or within. Peace and harmony have characterized all of their proceedings and nothing of a sensational or startling nature has occurred. Hence, the chronicle, reflecting these peaceful moods, must itself be without items of very stirring interest.

But during the fifty years of the existence of the bodies there have occurred many little incidents and episodes which the historian has deemed of sufficient importance to warrant a mention in these pages. The incidents have been recited with such degree of detail as the particular subject seemed to demand.

To avoid prolixity the names and terms of service of the presiding officers of the several bodies have been collated and presented in a series of tables which show, in a clear and succinct manner, the order of succession. These tables cover only the period since the union in 1871. No sufficient data have been found to show a complete list of the office bearers of the rival bodies prior to the merger.

Another important feature of the book is the historical register of members. This list was compiled under the personal supervision of Ill. Bro. Gil. W. Barnard, and is believed to be full and complete. The illustrations have necessarily been limited and confined to the portraits of the men who have successively ruled over the several bodies and guided their destinies in the past.

The amended code of by-laws, adopted in the year 1907, has also been inserted as well for convenience of reference as from the fact that it is itself original historic material of the highest character.

The author submits the volume to the Craft in the hope that it will be found, in some measure, a fulfillment of the directions contained in the resolution of March 16, 1905, and that it may serve to preserve "in durable form," some, at least, of the "facts, incidents and data relating to these bodies for the past fifty years."

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY OBSERVATIONS.

INTRODUCTION—ORIGIN OF MASONIC RITES—THE RITE OF PERFECTION—DEPUTATION OF STEPHEN MORIN—DIFFUSION OF THE RITE IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE—ESTABLISHMENT OF BODIES AT CHARLESTON, S. C.—CREATION OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL AND BIRTH OF THE SCOTTISH RITE—EXPLOITATION IN THE NORTHERN JURISDICTION.

FREEMASONRY, like many other institutions, has constantly exhibited a tendency to evolve from simple to complex forms. Commencing, so far as we are able to learn, at some indeterminate period soon after the end of the tenth century, its rudimentary form seems to have been that of a craft guild. The earliest authentic document that has come down to us, dated, by estimation, the latter part of the fourteenth century, unmistakably discloses this fact, while the numerous copies of the old charges written or compiled since that time all confirm this primitive character. But the old Freemasons, from the earliest glimpse that we are able to obtain of them, were not, in all respects, like the ordinary artificer's guilds of the period. They had old legends that claimed for their craft, if not for their organization, a very remote antiquity; they had a code of ethics that seems remarkable for its lofty morality when compared with the rude and turbulent age in which they lived; and they had a stable organization, with a fixed though simple ceremony of initiation.

The old Freemasons, however, knew nothing of degrees or dignities. They had but one form of reception, and the person so received became for all purposes a member of the society. There were indeed ranks of workmen, the divisions and distinctions depending upon technical skill and knowledge of the building art, but degrees, as that term is now understood, do not seem to have had any existence until after the revival of 1717. While it is true that the person having the superintendence of the work was known as "Master," yet this title had reference only to actual building operations. Their principal men, the directors and advisers, were called "Elders," and it was one of the Elders who presided over the meetings of the Craft, administered the obligation and read the charges to the novice.

With the gradual change from an operative to a purely speculative character came many additions to the original meagre ritual. The ancient legends of the Craft supplied some of these additions but the fertile imaginations of the ritual compilers furnished by far the larger portion, and whenever it became necessary an ancient legend was promptly fabricated to sustain a ritualistic formula. These features became very strongly marked after the revival and the Rev. James Anderson may fairly be assigned the position of father of the modern school of imaginative Masonic historians.

At the time of the revival, and for a number of years next ensuing, it would seem that only one degree was conferred in the Lodge, or, at most, only two degrees, to-wit: Apprentice and Fellow. Certain it is that the Master's Part, as it was called, could be obtained only in Grand Lodge, and there is much evidence to show that the part of Master and Fellow constituted but one degree. This, it would further seem, consisted of a mere dignity. By 1730, however, a full scale of three degrees, in essential form much as we now know them, constituted the curriculum of the Lodge. About this time, also, or soon thereafter, there was introduced the official degree of Installed Master, and along about 1740 we may perceive the first appearance of the degree of Royal Arch. This latter, in its early form at least, seems to have been a "chair degree;" that is, it was conferred only on the actual Masters of Lodges, or, as the old books say, upon one "who had regularly passed the chair and exhibited proofs of his skill in architecture."

The last half of the eighteenth century was prolific in Masonic dignities, degrees, rites and systems. Particularly is this true of the continent of Europe, where the primitive conceptions of British Freemasonry were expanded to the last stages of attenuation. An unbridled license gave to every person so disposed an unlimited privilege to manufacture dignities, titles and degrees at his pleasure, and, as a consequence, a multitude of rites was invented. In the main they all assumed to rest upon the primary symbolism of the original three degrees, and to be expansions and developments of the ancient craft legends. But superimposed upon the old and simple usages of the mediæval Masons was a vast mass of foreign matter drawn from most divergent and incongruous sources. The occult sciences, the Kabala, Hermeticism, Gnosticism, the Mithraic and Eleusinian Mysteries, as well as the Chivalry of the Crusades, all contributed to the general scheme and all were held to be a part of the great arcana of Freemasonry. These systems, for the most part, were highly ephemeral, and in many instances were outlived by their projectors. A few, however, have shown a wonderful persistency of survival and now form the basis of modern rites and orders administering the high degrees.

It is greatly to be regretted that the early historians of these rites were not more concerned with stating the actual facts respecting the genesis of their respective organizations, and less with seeking fanciful derivations, and that fables should have been so insistently maintained in the face of obvious truth. It is further to be regretted that modern historians of the high degrees have not adopted the methods of critical scholarship which so eminently characterize the work of the students of the craft degrees; that so much of their work should have been devoted to barren polemics and so little to efforts of purely historical writing, and that on many vital points they are so utterly at variance. The result has been to leave the casual inquirer in doubt and uncertainty.

In the paragraphs immediately following an attempt has been made to show, in brief epitome, the origin and development of the Scottish Rite. The data are drawn wholly from writings approved by both the Southern and Northern Supreme Councils and from documents published by one or the other of those bodies. Where accounts differ preference has been given to that which seems the best authenticated. In no case has the writer advanced any views of his own.

From the received traditions it would seem that in the year 1758 a society was instituted in France, at the City of Paris, called the "Council of Emperors of the East and West." This council, out of the plenitude of its own power, immediately thereafter created a new system of Freemasonry to which it gave the name "Rite of Perfection." The new rite was divided into twenty-five degrees, the last and highest of which was "Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret." In 1761 the council deputed one Stephen Morin to establish a lodge "in any of the four quarters of the world at which he shall arrive or reside," to be named "Perfect Harmony," and so to "multiply the Royal Order of Freemasons in all the perfect and sublime degrees." By his charter of appointment, Morin was further given "full and entire power to multiply and to create Inspectors in every place where the sublime degrees are not established." Armed with this authority he came to the Island of Jamaica, where he is said to have created a number of Inspectors. Among those so invested was Moses M. Hays, to whom also was given the power of appointing Deputy Inspectors, whenever in his judgment such a course should become necessary. Under this power Hays appointed Isaac Da Costa a Deputy Inspector General for South Carolina, and in the year 1783 the Rite was introduced into that State by the establishment of a Lodge of Perfection at Charleston. This lodge was the germ of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

On December 4, 1802, a circular, signed by five brethren residing at Charleston, was issued to "all the Sublime and Symbolic Grand Lodges throughout the two Hemispheres," announcing that on "the 31st of May, 5801, the Supreme Council of the Thirty-third degree for the United States of America was opened with the high honors of Masonry, by Brothers John Mitchell and Frederick Dalcho." There is no record, printed or written, of any system of thirty-three degrees prior to the appearance of this circular. Where Mitchell and Dalcho obtained their degrees we do not know. Before that time the twenty-five degrees of the Rite of Perfection were alone recognized. By the organization of this Supreme Council, therefore, a new Masonic rite was created. This seems to have been accomplished by the fabrication or adoption of eight additional degrees, the former dignity of Inspector being changed into a degree for this purpose and made the apex of the Rite. From the Council so organized has descended, directly or indirectly, all of the Scottish Rite Masonry of the world.

In the year 1807, or about five years after the appearance of the circular above mentioned, one Joseph Cerneau, a refugee from Cuba, organized a "Grand Consistory" at the City of New York. How or where he obtained his authority is immaterial at this time. This body subsequently became known as the "Supreme Council for the United States of America, its Territories and Dependencies."

In 1813, or about six years after the formation of the Cerneau body, Emanuel De La Motta, representing the Supreme Council at Charleston, organized a further governing body at New York to which was given the name "Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America." Thus there were two Supreme Councils struggling for supremacy in the same territory. It would further seem that a bitter rivalry existed between these two bodies and that a condition of open warfare characterized their actions toward each other for a number of years. Then came the anti-Masonic storm, before which both bodies went down and for years we hear nothing concerning either of them. But about 1850 there came a revival. Very weak at first, after the long dormancy, but constantly gathering strength, until by the year 1860 both councils had become practically rehabilitated. In this latter year, however, a schism occurred in the Northern Supreme Council. A recital of the causes which led to this event is unnecessary for the purposes of this sketch and these matters are touched upon only because they are a part of the early history of the Rite in the State of Illinois. It is sufficient to state that the Commander, E. A. Raymond, was declared deposed from office; that a new Commander, K. H. Van Rensselaer, was elected to succeed him; that Raymond, with his followers, refused to submit to the deposal, and that, as a consequence, we thereafter find two bodies, each claiming to be the lawful Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction. The old Cerneau Council was at this time under the presidency of one E. B. Hays, and a fierce three-cornered conflict was waged between the three Supreme Councils.

In 1863 a truce was declared between the Raymond and Hays Councils which finally resulted in their amalgamation. Each recognized the other as regular and legitimate; all faults and defects of either were condoned and both became consolidated into one new body called "Supreme Council of the A. A. Scottish Rite for the United States of America, its Territories and Dependencies." This council, a few years later, or, to be more exact, on October 22, 1865, changed its name to "Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America." Then there were but two supreme councils, each, however, claiming to be the only legal Scottish Rite organization in the Northern Jurisdiction. War continued to wage between these two bodies with unabated fury until the year 1867, when, as the result of wise counsels, they buried their differences, forgot their former animosities, and by mutual agreement consolidated into one body under the name and style "Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States." This is the body which at this time occupies the territory originally assigned to the council instituted by De La Motta in 1813, and to which the bodies of the Rite in Illinois are bound in fealty.

By the act of union each of the two councils gave up their former separate existence to become constituent parts of the new body, and from thenceforward there has been but one governing body for the jurisdiction. From time to time attempts have been made to organize and exploit spurious bodies claiming descent from one or the other of the old supreme councils above mentioned. The pretensions of these spurious bodies have rested, in the main, upon alleged irregularities in the consolidation proceedings and of inherent rights which, it is claimed, have never been surrendered by the projectors. But while these matters have been productive of much unpleasantness in other States, they have never been felt in Illinois, and the incidents which have grown out of them form no part of our history. To the student who desires to follow in detail the Scottish Rite controversies, the five volumes of Masonic Polemics now in the Library of Oriental Consistory will furnish a full and explicit account, and to them he is referred.

The bodies of the Rite located in the City of Chicago are lineal descendants from the two Supreme Councils which united in 1867 to form the present Supreme Council, and, like the present Supreme Council, were formed by an amalgamation of two sets of bodies that formerly had concurrent possession of the territory. Whatever of legitimacy, authority, or worth that was possessed by either or all of the old bodies has become ours by inheritance and we hold, in all their fullness and by an indefeasible title, the exclusive possession of the grades of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry.

CHAPTER II.

EARLY EXPLOITATION.

DEARTH OF HISTORIC MATERIAL—ENTRIES IN THE OLD RECORDS OF THE SUPREME COUNCILS—FIRST MENTIONS OF SCOTTISH RITE MASONRY IN CHICAGO—ORGANIZATION OF THE FIRST CO-ORDINATE BODIES—DECLINE OF INTEREST DURING THE CIVIL WAR—REVIVAL OF INTEREST WITH THE RETURN OF PEACE AND ESTABLISHMENT OF A SECOND SET OF CO-ORDINATE BODIES—THE WARS OF THE ROSES.

THE history of the early years of the Rite in the City of Chicago is a sealed book, which no one at the present time seems to be able to open. Little has come down to us in writing; time has dimmed the memory of the few who survive, while death has removed the majority of the witnesses who otherwise might have furnished the information we desire. All of the records of the old bodies were destroyed in the great fire of 1871, and the scanty memoranda now extant shed but little light on the conditions existing prior to that event.

From an entry in the records of the original Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction it would seem that an effort to locate a body of the Rite in Chicago was made as early as 1846, as in that year the Grand Commander was authorized to issue a charter for a Lodge of Perfection to be held in this city. Beyond the mere fact of such authorization, however, nothing is known. The records of the Supreme Council do not show any execution of the power thus given nor is there even an ancient tradition that such a body was ever instituted. We may safely conclude, therefore, that conditions were not favorable for the exercise of the Grand Commander's authority, and that nothing was done under it.

Our next authentic data are also from the records of the same Supreme Council, and occur in a report made to that body by K. H. Van Rensselaer in the year 1857. It would seem that about this time the growing interest in Freemasonry began to extend to the higher degrees, and that the Craft at large were making inquiries with respect to the system known as the Scottish Rite, which theretofore had been in the possession and under the control of small and select coteries. In view of these facts Bro. Van Rensselaer was sent on a missionary tour through the West during the year 1856, and one of the results of his labors was the planting of a set of co-ordinate bodies of the Rite in Chicago. From his report we learn that pursuant to orders from the Grand Commander he visited Chicago in the month of July, 1856, at which time he duly elevated a requisite number of brethren to the rank of Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret, and thereupon duly organized and constituted them in a Lodge, Council, Chapter and Consistory of the Ineffable and Sublime degrees of Freemasonry, with Charles R. Starkweather as Commander in Chief. Bro. Barnard, who has made a diligent search through what is left of the old records, says:

CHARLES R. STARKWEATHER, 33°,

So far as it can be ascertained, the original members, admitted by Bro. Van Rensselaer at the time of the organization in 1856, were: J. V. Z. Blaney, George W. Deering, James E. Dalliba, Robert H. Foss, Wm. B. Herrick, E. J. Higgins, Hosmer A. Johnson, Wm. W. Mitchell, Harman G. Reynolds, Henry C. Ranney, Reuben Taylor and Charles R. Starkweather, the latter having received the degrees at a previous date.

On May 14, 1857, charters were granted by the Supreme Council to the various bodies so organized, under the distinctive names, "Van Rensselaer Grand Lodge of Perfection," "Illinois Council of Princes of Jerusalem," "Gourgass Chapter of Rose Croix, H-R-D-M," and "Occidental Sovereign Consistory S. P. R. S.," and then was commenced the Masonic life of the Rite in this valley which has continued without interruption until today.

The original purport of the "high degrees" was superior knowledge, and to render this effective it necessarily followed that membership was restricted and the mysterious arcana confined to the select few. The new bodies at Chicago seem to have been imbued with this idea and to have acted upon it. The active membership was limited to thirty-two, although provision was made for emeritus and honorary members. It was further provided in the by-laws, that at least twenty-seven of the active members should be residents of the City of Chicago. There was no special limitation of the number of honorary members, this matter being left to the discretion of the actives. It would seem, however, that the exclusive character of the organization was, for a time at least, rigorously maintained, for according to a report made in the year 1865, nearly ten years after Van Rensselaer's first visit, the entire membership, active, honorary and emeritus, was, at that time, only eighty-two. Nor does it seem that honorary membership was of much value, beyond the mere fact of possession of the degrees and the incident right of visitation. It conferred the doubtful privilege of a voice in the deliberations, but the persons so admitted were wholly without voting capacity in the business sessions and in the selection of officers. Neither were they permitted to hold office themselves. It may be that these onerous restrictions had much to do with the poor showing in the early growth of the bodies.

Any active member who by reason of age, long service, "or other good cause," chose to retire from active participation in "the works," was permitted to "resign his seat," and thereupon to become an emeritus member. An active member failing to pay dues after two successive notices from the Grand Secretary thereby virtually abdicated and relinquished his rights of membership, such action being construed as a resignation. Nor could he ever be reinstated as an active member unless by unanimous vote of all of the actives, though he might be given the status of honorary membership, after payment of arrearages, by a majority vote of the active members present. It would seem, also, that active members were not permitted to shirk duties, for if one of them failed to attend three consecutive sessions of the Consistory, without leave, by such act he became an honorary member and his vacant seat was immediately filled. In like manner, any officer failing to attend three consecutive sessions, unless excused by the Consistory, was considered as having resigned his office. Five active members constituted a quorum for the transaction of business.

The triennial meeting for the election of officers was held on the festival of St. John the Evangelist. Regular meetings were held on the fourth Thursdays of February, April, June, August, October, and on the 27th day of December in each year.

The degrees conferred in the Consistory, or rather the scale of degrees over which it exercised jurisdiction, were, in titles at least, much the same as at present. The 29th, now known as Knight of St. Andrew, was then called "Patriarch of the Crusades." Otherwise, the names were practically the same as those now employed.

During the stormy period of the Civil War, when men's minds were centered largely on the Titanic struggle of the sections, Masonry generally, in all of its branches, suffered a decline. This was particularly true of the higher degrees, and for several years but little was done in the Preceptory of the Consistory. But with the return of peace and the resumption of social relations an era of marked prosperity set in, and the year 1865 may be taken as the date of the first real advance of the Scottish Rite in the State of Illinois.

Up to this time there had been but one set of bodies in the city. It would have been well, perhaps, if this condition had continued, but the fates had decreed otherwise. The consolidation of the two Supreme Councils presided over by Raymond and Hays respectively, as described in the preceding chapter, created a new and strong Masonic power that sought for conquests in the West. The result was the establishment, at the City of Chicago, of a second Consistory and co-ordinate bodies and the inauguration of a season of bitter antagonistic feeling, the effects of which were felt for many years afterward.

The early records of the Supreme Councils, upon which we are forced to rely for what little information we possess of Scottish Rite origins in Chicago, are not very full or explicit. But from these records, and the few traditions that have come down to us, we find that about this time Bro. John Sheville made a tour of the West as a missionary of the Raymond-Hays Supreme Council, in much the same manner as Bro. Van Rensselaer had traversed the territory some ten years before. Chicago seems to have been one of his objective points, and while here he conferred the degrees upon a number of brethren and thereupon instituted, not a series of bodies but a subsidiary governing body which was known as the "Grand Consistory of Illinois." The policy of the "Union Council," as the Raymond-Hays body was called, was to plant a superior body, with limited governmental powers, in each State, and to leave to this body, called a Grand Consistory, the task of propagating the Rite in its jurisdiction and of issuing charters to the bodies which it might create. At a session of the Supreme Council held on Dec. 14, 1866, a charter was authorized to be issued to the Grand Consistory of Illinois, to bear date as of the time of its institution. At the same time Bro. Walter A. Stevens was elected an active member of the Supreme Council, while D. W. Thompson was appointed its deputy for the State of Illinois.

The Grand Consistory of Illinois was organized with Walter A. Stevens as Grand Commander in Chief, and the other offices were filled by men whose names have become historic in the Masonic annals of the State. This body thereupon issued charters of constitution for "Chicago Consistory," with John D. M. Carr as Commander in Chief; for "Cœur de Leon Chapter of Rose Croix"; for "Chicago Council, Princes of Jerusalem," and for "Chicago Lodge of Perfection." At the same time co-ordinate bodies were established at Monmouth, De Kalb, and Waukegan.

Thenceforward we find two opposing sets of Scottish Rite bodies in Chicago, each claiming exclusive jurisdiction and each asserting the only legitimate descent. The union of the two parent Supreme Councils in 1867 served in some measure to remove all questions of legitimacy, as each of these bodies recognized as regular and legitimate the progeny of the other, and whatever of congenital defect that may have once existed in either branch was effaced and forgotten. But, notwithstanding that the parents had buried their differences and united in one body all of the theretofore opposing factions, the children at Chicago refused to become reconciled. Though both sets of bodies recognized the one Supreme Council, and both were in its allegiance, yet, as between themselves there was no compromise and each Consistory, with its co-ordinate bodies, continued its separate existence as before. These conditions, strange as it may now appear, lasted for a number of years and during that period there was a state of affairs in the Scottish Rite Masonry of Chicago that greatly resembled the "Wars of the Roses." This warfare continued until the year 1871, when a union was finally effected in the manner hereinafter described.

CHAPTER III.

THE UNION.

DIFFERENCES OF THE RIVAL BODIES—FIRST EFFORTS FOR RECONCILIATION—ACTION OF SUPREME COUNCIL—STORY OF THE RECONCILIATION—ARTICLES OF UNION—THE MERGER—THE CONSOLIDATED BODIES—THE GREAT FIRE OF 1871—REVIVAL AND REORGANIZATION.

WHILE it is easy to understand why there should have been two sets of Scottish Rite bodies in Chicago during the time that rival Supreme Councils were claiming jurisdiction over the territory, it is not so easy to understand why this duality should have continued after the union of these Supreme Councils in 1867, and after each of the co-ordinate bodies had sworn allegiance to the new Supreme Council. Yet for four years after the parent bodies had settled all their differences in an amicable merger their progeny in Illinois continued to maintain a separate existence, and, it would seem, with feelings of considerable animosity toward each other.

The reasons for this strange condition of affairs were many, although in the main trivial. Back of all was the old ingrained prejudice which many of the members of the rival bodies entertained for each other, a survival of the preceding period. The general policy of the two bodies also exhibited great differences, and these differences became strongly accentuated after the merger of the parent Supreme Councils. One of these points of difference was the field from which candidates were drawn, or the qualifications a person should possess before being permitted to petition for the degrees. Thus, Occidental Consistory, pursuing its old-time policy of exclusiveness, required all of its postulants to be Knights Templar, and insisted that membership should be confined to the ultra-select. Chicago Consistory, on the other hand, conferred its degrees upon any one of good character who had attained the degree of Master Mason. This caused a constant friction between the bodies which eventually resulted in strained relations that threatened open rupture.

The first efforts looking toward a reconciliation and union were made in the Supreme Council. At the annual session of the latter, held in the year 1869, a resolution was adopted which, in general terms, recommended to the Consistories of the various States under its jurisdiction a consolidation of their respective bodies, "and where it is desirable that more than one Consistory should exist, that they should be as far removed from each other as possible." This resolution paved the way for a merger had either side then been willing to make concessions, but so strong and bitter was the spirit of rivalry that neither would take the initiative, and it was not until two years later that the project assumed definite shape.

During the year 1870 the ill feeling which existed between the two Consistories seems to have reached an acute stage, which threatened not only the present peace and harmony of the Rite but endangered its future welfare. At this juncture wise counsels came to allay the fever of the warring factions and it was proposed to end, at once and forever, all disputes and contentions by a consolidation of all of the bodies, in pursuance of the resolution of the Supreme Council. This was finally consummated in the following year, and, as Bro. Barnard has said in his history, was "one of the greatest and most momentous events in the history of these bodies."

The principal data for the story of the reconciliation are found in a report made to the Supreme Council in 1871, by Ill. Bro. Vincent L. Hurlbut, the Deputy for Illinois.

From the report of Bro. Hurlbut we learn that on January 27, 1871, he convened the presiding officers of the several bodies of the Rite at Chicago in a Council of Deliberation, for the purpose of "devising some equitable plan to consolidate the several bodies, with perfect harmony and fraternal feeling." The response to the order was full and hearty. The general feeling was that all of the unfortunate differences of the past should be buried; that the two Consistories and their co-ordinate bodies should unite their strength and influence by a consolidation, and as a basis for future work on these lines the presiding officers of all of the bodies, together with the Deputy, were appointed a committee to prepare "terms of union," with instructions to report the result of their labors at a future called meeting of the Council. It was further decided, that if the terms proposed should meet the approval of the Council, then the Deputy was to request the presiding officers to call meetings of the members of their respective bodies to act upon the proposition submitted. For the purpose of furthering the project and facilitating the undertaking, a sub-committee was appointed to "perfect a plan of consolidation." This committee, which may be regarded as the sponsor of the present co-ordinate bodies, was composed of the Illustrious Brethren, Reuben Cleveland and Gilbert W. Barnard on the part of Chicago Consistory, and Henry C. Ranney and Theodore T. Gurney on the part of Occidental Consistory.

The sub-committee met, deliberated, and finally agreed, that there should be but one set of bodies of the Rite in Chicago, and that a union of the two sets then claiming concurrent jurisdiction should immediately be made. It was not considered necessary, however, that both Consistories, as well as the other co-ordinate bodies, should surrender their charters, and it was thought that the union could be best accomplished by an absorption of the younger bodies by the elder. The terms of union, in each case, to be agreed upon and settled by a Conference Committee composed of members of both bodies.

These conclusions were duly reported to an adjourned meeting of the Council of Deliberation held on February 3, 1871, when they were approved with slight modifications. By resolution of the Council the several bodies were left free to act, each for itself, without waiting for action by bodies of other grades, and in the event of merger all past officers and members of the merging body were to retain all of their former rights and privileges in the surviving body. Immediately after the union should be effected the officers of the surviving body were to resign their positions and the Committee of Conference was to present a list of names for the officers to be elected by the consolidated body. In fact, everything was done to perfect the "equitable plan" of consolidation proposed by the Deputy at the initial meeting of the Council, and that, too, "with perfect harmony and fraternal feeling." There were, however, a few minor points involved in the plan upon which complete agreement could not be reached. These arose, in the main, out of feelings of pride on the one hand and of prejudice on the other, by certain members of the merging or younger bodies. Finally, a happy solution to these vexed questions was presented by a project for the re-naming of the consolidated Consistory and a juggling of the name of one of the other bodies, the idea being to efface, as far as possible, the distinctive features of prior existence and to give to the consolidated bodies the appearance, at least, of new life. This was accomplished by the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is essential to the prosperity of the A. A. & A. A. Rite, that there should be but one Consistory, Chapter, Council and Lodge in this city, and the Committee heartily recommend the union of Chicago Consistory with Occidental Consistory; Cœur de Leon Sovereign Chapter with Gourgass Chapter; Chicago Council with Illinois Council; Chicago Lodge with Van Rensselaer Lodge, and that on the union of these respective Bodies an application be made immediately to the Supreme Council for a change of the name of Occidental Consistory to Oriental Consistory, and Illinois Council to Chicago Council.

In pursuance of this action of the Council of Deliberation, and upon the further request of the delegates thereto, the Deputy thereupon notified all of the bodies to convene special meetings of the members for the purpose of considering and acting upon the proposed plan of consolidation. This was done. All of the bodies adopted the recommendations of the Council, and all carried out, in good faith, the plan as therein set forth. There were no dissensions, no real opposition, but all worked unitedly and harmoniously. Committees of Conference were appointed to arrange the terms of merger as provided in the recommendations; the "Chicago Bodies," as they were called, surrendered their charters to the Deputy and ceased to exist; the surviving bodies received all of the members of the extinct bodies and the officers of such surviving bodies then resigned; the united bodies then proceeded to fill the vacant stations, choosing the officers alternately from the membership as represented by the dual bodies before the merger.

The initial steps were taken in the Lodges of Perfection, both of which met on March 24, 1871, at their respective halls, and then effected a consolidation as above described. The same action was subsequently had by the two Councils and the two Chapters, and on April 27, 1871, the two Consistories formally ratified the pact by a fraternal union. Thus the merger became complete and from thence hitherto there has been but one set of co-ordinate Scottish Rite bodies in the City of Chicago.

While the action of the various bodies in thus effecting a consolidation was characterized by much unanimity of spirit, there were yet some who refused to accept the new order of things and who clung to the old forms. This became manifest in the Council of Deliberation while negotiations for a union were still in progress. To enable all such persons to effect an honorable retreat in the event of a merger the Council adopted the following:

Resolved, That should a majority of each of the A. . & A. . Rite Bodies vote to unite, that each and every member of each, who may not wish to become a member of the Consolidated Body or Bodies, who may be in good and regular standing, may be permitted to dimitt from the respective Body or Bodies to which they may belong, after the vote of union has passed.

Acting upon this resolution it would seem that a large number of the members of both branches of the Rite dimitted, a circumstance that materially reduced the membership of the consolidated bodies. The withdrawals also had a depressing effect upon many of those who remained, while their deterrent influence on prospective candidates still further tended, in some measure, to impede progress. But the general feeling was good and the incidents just mentioned were not of sufficient moment to cause serious trouble. The future seemed bright and full of promise, and then came the devastating fire of Oct. 9, 1871, and with it a momentary suspension of the Masonic life of the city.

From the standpoint of the historian the loss occasioned by the Great Fire is irreparable. All of the records, charters, and other historic memoranda, both of the original and consolidated bodies, were utterly consumed. No subsequent efforts were made to restore them, and not until a majority of the chief actors in the early drama had passed away did the enormity of the loss which had been sustained become apparent. Occasionally, as the student of the Craft pursues his investigations among the debris of those forgotten years, something of value is unearthed, but thus far the finds have been few and unimportant.

While the fire seemed for the moment to have paralyzed the Masonic energy of the city, yet such paralysis was momentary only. As would naturally be expected the recuperative spirit was first manifested by the Craft Lodges, but the higher bodies were also quick to respond to the general feeling of the community for a new and greater Chicago. This was particularly the case with respect to the bodies of the Scottish Rite, and on Nov. 29, 1871, a meeting of the Chiefs was held at the office of the Deputy "for the purpose of taking action in the matter of reorganization of the several bodies of the Rite." After a full discussion of the situation the following action was taken:

Resolved, As the sense of the Presiding Officers of the A. A. & A. A. Rite bodies, all being present, that it is most desirable to reorganize the several bodies as soon as possible.

Resolved, That as soon as we can, we should hold our meetings on the nights of the regular meetings, as provided for by the By-Laws.

Resolved, That in the absence of work at the regular meetings of the several bodies, some Brother be requested to prepare a lecture or essay appertaining to the A. A. & A. A. Rite.

Resolved, That we recommend to our several bodies the appointment of committees, with power to act, to procure permanent quarters on the "South Side" of the city, and as near our old quarters as possible.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this meeting furnish to the several bodies of the A. A. & A. A. Rite of Chicago, a copy of the foregoing Resolutions, so that the committees on reconstruction may be appointed, and the work of reorganization go on as speedily as possible.

In pursuance of the foregoing resolutions temporary quarters were secured on the "South Side," in a hall at Twenty-third street and Cottage Grove avenue, where the work of "reorganization" was vigorously prosecuted. Then for a period the West Chicago Masonic Temple at Halsted and West Randolph streets was their place of shelter, until finally, on the completion of the Masonic apartments in the American Express Building, No. 78 Monroe street, they removed thither and, with but one brief interruption, this continued to be their home for many years.

In 1893 the bodies vacated the quarters they had so long occupied at 78 Monroe street, and moved to a set of apartments specially prepared for them in the then recently erected Masonic Temple, located at State and Randolph streets. The new rooms, however, were not in all respects satisfactory, neither were they adapted to the requirements of the constantly augmenting ranks of the Consistory. As a consequence, after a few years' occupation, it was decided to seek other and better accommodations. These were eventually secured by the purchase of the property located at 293-5 Dearborn avenue, and the erection thereon of the present commodious halls. And so, after half a century of wandering, the bodies are at last housed in a permanent home of their own.

CHAPTER IV.

ORIENTAL CONSISTORY.

THE CONSOLIDATED BODY RE-CHARTERED—REAL COMMENCEMENT OF CORPORATE LIFE—EFFECT OF THE GREAT FIRE—GROWTH IN MEMBERSHIP AND GAINS IN MONEY—COMPARISONS WITH OTHER BODIES OF THE RITE—PRESENT CONDITIONS.

ON the sixteenth day of November, 1871, just five weeks after the Great Fire and while the bodies of the Rite were still sitting sorrowful amid the ashes of their former home, the Supreme Council met at the City of Boston, and, among other things, granted a charter for a new body to be located at the City of Chicago under the title of "Oriental Consistory." The warrant of authority ran to the Illustrious Brethren, George W. Deering, Charles R. Starkweather, William B. Herrick, James V. Z. Blaney, Robert H. Foss, James E. Dalliba and Hosmer A. Johnson, "with their future legal associates and successors." But while the charter bears date as of November 16, 1871, and in general terms purports to be a warrant for the organization of a new body, yet, in effect, it is only a charter of confirmation. This fact is further recognized by a clause of the charter itself which recites:

And we do hereby declare the precedence of said Oriental Consistory to commence from the twentieth day of Sivan, A. . M. . 5617, answering to the fourteenth day of May, A. D. 1857, hereby ratifying and confirming all constitutional acts heretofore done by said Consistory.

Endorsed upon the charter is the following:

This warrant of authority is issued by the SUPREME COUNCIL, A. . A. . S. . Rite, for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, U. S. A., as a substitute for that by the authority of which, the body named herein was constituted, bearing date May 14, 1857, and which was destroyed by fire October 9, 1871.

By whom this endorsement was made does not appear, but it undoubtedly expresses the true purport of the charter, which was, not to create a new consistory but to continue the existence of the original organization under a new name. Such being the case, then the body now known as Oriental Consistory will have completed the first semi-centenary of its existence on May 14, 1907, and it is to commemorate this event that the writer has prepared the present sketch.

But while the official life of Oriental Consistory, by that name, commenced on November 16, 1871, its potential existence must be dated from the day of the Union, which was April 27, 1871, or a little more than six months before the new charter issued. On the evening of this last mentioned day both of the old Consistories met, pursuant to the agreement theretofore made by the Conference Committees. Chicago Consistory surrendered its charter to the Deputy, and thereupon presented a list of the names of its members, all of whom were immediately received in full fellowship by Occidental Consistory. The officers of Occidental Consistory then resigned their several stations and the Deputy ordered a new election. At this election Bro. Henry C. Ranney became the Commander in Chief and notwithstanding that the election was held in Occidental Consistory, yet inasmuch as no change was made in the official staff after the issuance of the new charter he is classed as the first Commander of Oriental Consistory.

We are informed by some of the old timers that the consolidation, beneficial as it may have been, did not entirely allay the bitter feelings that former years had engendered, and that a number from both sections of the Consistory voluntarily severed their connection with the Rite. But these defections, while slightly reducing the membership, were not sufficient to appreciably retard the progress of the body nor impair the good results of the union. The practice of weekly meetings, which had been inaugurated by Chicago Consistory, was continued by the consolidated body; the enthusiasm of the members was communicated to the Craft generally and large numbers began to present themselves for the honors of the Scottish Rite; the officers were zealous, the rank and file harmonious, and everything betokened an era of unexampled prosperity, when the Great Fire of Oct. 9, 1871, interrupted the work and for a time paralyzed the energies of the workmen. But this interruption, as has been shown, was momentary only, and its effects were soon dispelled. Regular meetings were resumed within a few weeks thereafter, and from that time until the present the advance has been steady and continuous.

While all of the years show gains and all were prosperous, if we shall regard prosperity only in the sense of numerical increase and treasury balances, yet we may observe marked differences from time to time as the Rite became better known and its purposes more fully understood. The first ten years witnessed a slow but steady growth. From 1880 to 1890 this growth became greatly accelerated and the classes at the semi-annual conventions constantly gained in size. From 1890 to 1900 the advance was by leaps and bounds, and during the present decennium the increase has been greater than at any time in our history. Nor do the portents for the future point to any loss of interest in Scottish Rite Masonry on the part of the Craft in general, or to any diminution of the numbers that will continue to apply for a participation in our labors. There are those who see, or affect to see, an element of weakness in our constantly augmenting numbers, and who are urging a return to the more conservative and exclusive methods that characterized the early years of Occidental Consistory before the merger. But, beyond a little crowding on certain occasions, no bad results are thus far apparent. The body, notwithstanding its size, has not become unwieldy, neither is it likely to become so, and even if it shall so happen that it will eventually attain such proportions as to preclude a general attendance at all sessions, we may yet rely on the wisdom of the elders to provide a suitable remedy.

And now that we are upon the subject of growth a brief comparison of present conditions with those of former years may not be out of place. Concerning the affairs of the bodies prior to the Great Fire of 1871, we know but little. The policy of Occidental Consistory was very exclusive, and from a report made in 1865, nearly ten years after its organization, it appears that the entire membership was only eighty-two. No figures are at hand to show the membership of the consolidated Consistory in 1871, but from the time of the Great Fire until the present the annual reports show constantly augmenting numbers. The triennial period of 1882-84 seems to have been the real commencement of rapid increase and at the end of that term the officers "pointed with pride" to the fact that during the time 335 new members had been added to the roll, making a grand total of 710 members in good standing. In 1887, at the end of the succeeding triennial term, the list had increased to 1,034, and on December 25, 1906, the date of the last report, the books showed that 4,213 persons were enrolled under the banner of Oriental Consistory.

At the time of the Great Fire, in 1871, the co-ordinate bodies, then but recently consolidated, are reported to have had well-appointed apartments, for those days, in the old Masonic Temple on Dearborn street. The fire, however, wiped out everything and the loss was total. At the resumption, after the fire, the bodies started with nothing. Nor does it seem that the treasury balances were very plethoric for a number of years thereafter. During the official term of Ill. Bro. H. H. Pond, Commander in Chief, there was a marked increase in the number of admissions and a consequent increase in the treasury balance. But this balance was not only offset but actually changed into a deficit by the expenses entailed in fitting up new quarters at 78 Monroe street in the year 1884. The reports at the end of that year showed that all of the money in the treasury had been expended and that, in addition, a debt of $2,714.00 had been contracted, and it was not until 1887 that the last of this debt was paid. Since this latter year the Consistory has made steady financial gains and from the report of the Grand Secretary to the annual meeting of 1906 we learn that there was then in the treasury sufficient cash to pay all outstanding obligations, leaving unincumbered assets amounting in the aggregate to $205,-197.48.

A comparison of the Chicago bodies with those of other cities, both in the Southern and Northern Jurisdictions, reveals the pleasing fact that Oriental Consistory is, in point of numbers, the largest Scottish Rite organization in the world; that it leads all of its competitors by a safe margin, and that its annual increase far exceeds that of any other. From these facts and in view of the ample field from which it draws its recruits, may we not safely predict that the premiership now held will be long retained?

It will thus be seen that Oriental Consistory closes its first semi-centennial period strong in men and money ; that it possesses one of the finest buildings in the country devoted to Scottish Rite Masonry ; that it has no internal dissensions and that it is enjoying, as never before, the respect, esteem and confidence of the Ancient Craft from which its members are chosen.

CHAPTER V.

INCIDENTS AND EPISODES.

GENERAL MENTIONS—ABSORPTION OF OTHER BODIES—ADOPTION OF UNIFORM—PARADES AND PILGRIMAGES—OPENING OF NEW QUARTERS ON MONROE STREET—ADOPTION OF FUNERAL RITUAL—FORMATION OF DANVILLE CAMP—REMOVAL TO MASONIC TEMPLE—INCIDENTS OF THE WORLD'S FAIR—ACQUISITION OF LIBRARY—OBSERVANCE OF CENTENNIAL OF RITE—ANNUAL RECEPTIONS—REMOVAL TO DEARBORN AVENUE.

WHERE a Masonic body of any degree possesses no legislative powers, has no subordinates, and no function save the perpetuation of its own existence by the reception of new members, it necessarily follows that but scant material is afforded for the reviewer's pen. Particularly is this true where the body has for many years moved quietly along in its accustomed grooves, with no interruptions from either without or within. And such has been the history of Oriental Consistory and its co-ordinate bodies from the time of the union. The incidents and episodes which the historian has deemed worthy of mention will, to many, perhaps, seem trivial and insignificant, and yet, in their day, and to the brethren who were participants, they were considered of much moment. From their nature they must necessarily be treated in a desultory manner and because of the limitations of the present work such treatment must further be general and brief.

One of these incidents occurred in the year 1872, or rather had its inception in that year, whereby the ranks of the Consistory were considerably augmented by the practical absorption of two other organizations. Among the charters issued by the old Grand Consistory of Illinois were a series for the establishment of co-ordinate bodies at the City of Monmouth in Warren County.

The Monmouth bodies flourished for a brief period and at first gave promise of a successful future. But later on, when the available material had been worked up and the limited sources of supply no longer furnished candidates, the inevitable decay set in.

Deeming it impossible to longer continue the organizations to advantage, the Consistory and Chapter voted to surrender their charters and consolidate with Oriental Consistory and Gourgass Chapter at Chicago. The result was a large accession to the membership of the Chicago bodies, although it was not until 1875 that the Monmouth charters were formally revoked.

During the early part of the year 1872 Carson Consistory, at Springfield, passed a like resolution. The conditions at Springfield, however, were not in all respects the same as at Monmouth. There was an ample territory from which to draw candidates, and but for the explanation which was furnished to the Council of Deliberation by the Chiefs of Carson Consistory the action would seem inexplicable. It will be remembered that the policy of all of the Consistories chartered by the Grand Consistory of Illinois was to make the Master Mason degree the Masonic qualification of candidates. This policy was continued by them after the union of the two Supreme Councils, and was one of the potent causes of friction between Occidental and Chicago Consistories. Carson Consistory, at Springfield, continued to pursue this course. This, it seems, was hotly resented by the Knights Templar of the City, who finally assumed an attitude of open hostility to the Scottish Rite. A short time before the above mentioned action was taken the Consistory had suffered a total loss by fire of its paraphernalia and properties, and in view of these circumstances the Chiefs decided that it would be unwise to continue the organizations, as they were in no condition to operate them in evident hostility to the Templars. Of course, there is and can be, no real antagonism between the bodies of the York and Scottish Rite, as there is no conflict of principle. But, economic reasons, purely financial, may sometimes be found by those so desiring and when analyzed this seems to have been the real matter of difference between Carson Consistory and the Templars. The consolidation, however, did not take place, although this course was recommended by the Council of Deliberation. The Consistory was permitted to continue its organization and to effect, if possible, a reconciliation with conflicting interests. This, however, it was unable to do and two years later, in 1874, its charter was revoked by the Supreme Council. At this latter time a large portion of its membership affiliated with Oriental Consistory and thus was indirectly accomplished the thing intended by the resolution of 1872.

In 1873 the Consistory adopted the present regulation uniform and its first public appearance was in November of that year, when it tendered an escort to the Supreme Council upon the occasion of its first session in Chicago. It must not be understood, however, that this period marks the beginning of the employment of uniforms and the adoption of military usages in the bodies of the Scottish Rite. Very soon after its organization Chicago Consistory devised a semi-military dress for its members and on several occasions, prior to the merger, had appeared upon the streets and at public functions wearing the new garb. Indeed, this was one of the vital points of difference between the rival Consistories. After the merger the use of uniforms was sanctioned by the Supreme Council, and in 1873, as above stated, the present regulation dress was adopted by the new or consolidated Consistory.

So far as the writer is able to learn, the idea of a uniform, as well as the adoption of military tactics, originated in Chicago. Certain it is that Chicago Consistory was the first body of the Rite in either hemisphere to equip its members in this manner, and while the primal impulse must undoubtedly be sought in the military character of the thirty-second degree, yet its practical development is due to the ardor and enthusiasm of the Princes of this Consistory.

It would seem that upon its introduction the new departure met with much favor. The intense military spirit engendered by the Civil War had not yet subsided and for many men there was an irresistible fascination in plumes, swords, and the other habiliments of the soldier. At all events, the Princes, generally, equipped themselves with the prescribed clothing, weapons and insignia. It would also seem that for some time thereafter the military spirit continued to manifest itself in public parades for escort and other duties. But for a number of years past there has been a constantly growing sentiment against public displays of any kind, and particularly against those which involve parades and uniforms and the mimicry of military usages. It is now conceded by the majority of the Craft, that, however desirable these things may have been, the day for such adjuncts is long past. The rapid growth and multiplication of imitative societies; the ostentatious manner in which they present themselves to the public, clad in semi-military garb; the decline of the old-time military fervor, and the increased attention bestowed upon the liturgic features of Masonry, have all combined to create a revulsion of feeling. This feeling has been markedly shown in the Consistory, and to this, in some measure, we must attribute present conditions, though it would seem that at all times the essential differences in the organization of the Scottish Rite, as compared with the Chivalric Orders, as well as the number and exalted character of its degrees, has tended to keep the military features in strict subordination to those of the liturgy.

At the present time all interest in the uniform seems to have died out. Its employment, in the main, is confined to the exemplification of the thirty-second grade, and it is worn, as a rule, only by the officers actually engaged in the work.

But while the military spirit was still in the ascendant, and while this spirit was finding vent in parades, escorts, and other functions of a public nature, a movement was started looking toward the "alteration and improvement" of the present standard. The movement seems to have originated in Boston but soon spread to Chicago, where it was eagerly supported by the military enthusiasts. That the movement must have acquired considerable impetus is shown in the fact that it received the attention of the Council of Deliberation at its meeting in 1877, when a resolution was passed approving the present uniform and requesting the Supreme Council to permit no change. Soon after this the decline in military interest set in and for many years the topic has remained quiescent.

Not the least among the many pleasing incidents of the past are the excursions which from time to time have been made to other cities. These little jaunts are noted in our records as "pilgrimages," but why they should have been given this name is not very apparent. In all probability the term was borrowed from the usages of the Knights Templar, where it has long been employed in this improper sense.

The first of these so-called "pilgrimages" occurred in the year 1876 when the Consistory tendered a military escort to the Supreme Council on the occasion of its annual session at New York. The Princes had then but lately been equipped with their new uniforms and the martial spirit was in the ascendency. A vent for the military enthusiasm was required, and a foreign campaign of invasion and conquest seemed desirable if not necessary. But this was a new experience for the staid and decorous Scottish Rite and a marked departure from the conservative standards it had so long maintained. Hence, the Grand Commander, desirous of pleasing the Chicago contingent but unwilling to compromise the Supreme Council, accepted the tender for himself only, although in the end it resolved itself into an escort for the entire body. It seems, however, that the affair did not pass without a demur on the part of many, who feared that it was but the commencement of a series of spectacular public displays such as characterize the triennial meetings of the Grand Encampment. But notwithstanding that the Chicago Princes went down to New York with drums beating and banners flying, incidentally capturing the town as well as the Supreme Council, the fears of the timid have not yet materialized and the annual sessions of the governing body are still conducted with the peace and decorum that ever have constituted its distinguishing features.

The visit seems to have been a very pleasing occasion to all parties concerned, while the pleasure was further augmented for the Chicagoans by a side trip to Philadelphia, where the great Centennial Exposition was then in progress. At Philadelphia the Consistory was the guest of Philadelphia Consistory, the Princes of which were lavish with hospitalities and knightly courtesies. On their return home these courtesies were duly acknowledged by the Orientals in an engrossed resolution of thanks, and a splendid banner of the Order was sent to Philadelphia Consistory as a memorial of the visit.

In 1878 a similar pilgrimage was made to the City of Milwaukee, where the Consistory again performed the duties of a guard of honor at the meeting of the Supreme Council. In 1883 the same service was rendered at Cincinnati, and again in 1890 at Cleveland. From none other of its subordinate bodies has the Supreme Council so often received an escort, and notwithstanding its professed conservative character it does not seem that it has ever taken unkindly to them.

An interesting incident of the Cincinnati pilgrimage above mentioned, was a side trip to Louisville where an inspection was had of the Widows' and Orphans' Home of Kentucky. So impressed were the pilgrims with the beneficent work of that institution that a voluntary contribution taken at the time netted the sum of $500.00, while on their return to Chicago a further formal appropriation of $500.00 was made from the funds of the Consistory. These two sums, amounting in the aggregate to $1,000.00, seem to have been the first moneys given in aid of organized charity and were the precursors of the munificent donation of $5,000.00, made a few years later, to aid the work of the Illinois Masonic Home of Chicago.

In addition to these excursions for escort duty the Consistory has made a number of friendly visits to near-by neighbors. In 1882 there was an excursion to Peoria, Ill., the special object of which was to assist in the laying of the corner-stone of a new Masonic Temple. In 1894 the visit was repeated, and upon each occasion the Princes returned highly delighted with the trip and with the attentions received from Peoria Consistory. On Feb. 14, 1883, a friendly visit was paid to DeWitt Clinton Consistory of Grand Rapids, Mich., and at many other times detachments of Oriental's Princes have unofficially visited the Consistories of surrounding States and thus renewed the bonds of good fellowship for which this Rite of Freemasonry is so justly famed.

The event of the year 1884 was the opening and occupation of the new Preceptory at No. 78 Monroe street. The apartments had been fitted up at large expense with a view to a permanent home for the bodies, and the feeling was general that at last quarters had been secured that were not only adequate for any emergency, but would endure for all time. Indeed, it is doubtful whether, at the time of its dedication, it was equaled by any Scottish Rite hall in the country, and it certainly was surpassed by none. The Preceptory chamber was lofty and spacious, the ornamentation rich and lavish and the furnishings of the most approved types. A stage of ample proportions, with all necessary adjuncts, afforded opportunity for effective workings theretofore impossible, while other special features permitted the introduction of many devices for augmenting the beauty and sublimity of the ritual. A pipe organ of great power and sweetness faced the stage at the opposite end of the chamber, and the lighting was so disposed as to produce rich, harmonious and oftentimes startling effects. A marked departure in Masonic hall construction was a balcony on three sides of the apartment, the first of its kind in the West, if not in the United States.

The rooms used in connection with the Preceptory were all in keeping with the ideas expressed in that apartment and were furnished in the same good taste and lavish manner. These rooms remained the home of the Consistory for about ten years and when they were finally abandoned under stress of circumstances there were many of the old-timers that left them with a pang of regret. In fact, even at this day and in view of the palatial surroundings of our present magnificent quarters, there are still many who feel and say, there is no place that can compare with our old home.

While the Consistory has often tendered its services as an escort on the occasion of funerals of its members, it is a fact not generally known, to the younger members at least, that it also possesses an elaborate funeral ritual of its own. The Supreme Council has never promulgated a burial service for members of the Rite, nor have its constituents, as a rule, taken kindly to the idea. But even as the Chicago bodies set the pace in the matter of uniforms, so also it remained for them to inaugurate the practice of Scottish Rite funerals. In the year 1884 the late distinguished Brother, Norman T. Gassette, composed and copyrighted a full ritual for a funeral ceremony to be employed at the obsequies of members of the Order. This compilation, together with the copyright, he subsequently presented to Oriental Consistory and on Sept. 2, 1884, it was duly adopted as the official ceremony of the Consistory in the conduct of funerals under its auspices. The service is composed in blank verse of much poetic beauty, but, although generally admired for its literary excellence, it has never been very popular and is now but seldom employed.

The idea of a special funeral service for the Consistory seems, like that of the uniforms, to have been borrowed from the Templars. Just why the simple and time-honored service for the burial of a Master Mason is not all-sufficient for those who desire Masonic burial or for the friends who survive the deceased, is not very apparent. With the Templars it was rejected because it did not possess Christian characteristics. For this reason certain ultra devout brethren residing in New York, and who, it would seem, did not consider the offices of the Church adequate, constructed the present Templar service in order that deceased members of the Order of the Temple might be given a "Christian burial." The service was subsequently adopted by the Grand Encampment and ordered to be used by the subordinate commanderies. Its employment by these bodies led to a desire for a similar service in the Consistory and this desire was eventually gratified by the scholarly work of Bro. Gassette. There is, however, a deep seated conviction in the minds of many eminent members of both the Temple and Consistory, that the adoption and use in those grades of a funeral ceremony is a direct invasion of the immemorial rights which pertain to the Master's degree, and that the use of such ceremony is but a garish display and wholly without symbolic significance. In this belief the writer fully shares and further feels that the dignity of the Chivalric grades is better subserved by escort duty only, leaving the ceremonies of sepulture to the Lodge. This course also is in keeping with the ancient traditions of the Orders.

One of the incidents of our history, if indeed it does not rise to the dignity of an episode, occurred during the year 1887, and consisted of the formation of an auxiliary organization in a neighboring city. At that time there were residing in or near the city of Danville about thirty Princes who had obtained investiture in Oriental Consistory. The policy of the Supreme Council was then averse to the multiplication of bodies, but the Danville Princes were ardent and enthusiastic and a vent was needed. This was supplied by Ill. Bro. Alfred Russell, the Commander in Chief, who instituted a new and wholly unique experiment. He organized the Princes into a "camp," which he called Danville Camp, and committed to their charge the ritual of the Nineteenth Grade, with the special privilege of its exemplification. The experiment proved eminently successful, and at the Fall Convention of that year the "camp" worked the degree to the entire satisfaction of the members of the Consistory as well as the edification of a large and appreciative class of candidates. The event is noteworthy for two reasons; first, it was the first time that the degree had ever been conferred in Oriental Consistory, and second, the only degree that has ever been exemplified by a body of workers residing outside of Chicago and holding no official positions. From this circumstance, probably, we may trace the movement that finally culminated in the organization of Danville Lodge of Perfection.

During the entire fifty years of the existence of the Consistory the regular succession of Commanders in Chief has been but once disturbed by death. With this exception all of the elected Commanders have duly served their respective terms of office and retired from their posts with the laurels of past rank. At the regular triennial election held on December 22, 1887, Ill. Bro. George R. McClellan was elected Commander, an office which he continued to acceptably fill until Jan. 10, 1890, when he died, leaving almost a year of his term still pending. The constitutions of the Supreme Council direct that in an emergency of this kind the next officer in rank shall assume the office and exercise the prerogatives of the deceased Commander. This was done in the case under review and Ill. Bro. George M. Moulton, then First Lieutenant, duly succeeded to the office and performed the duties of Commander for the residue of the term.

Toward the close of the 80's the membership of the Consistory had grown to such proportions and the classes at the semi-annual conventions had attained such size, that the accommodations of the Monroe Street Preceptory were felt to be inadequate. Larger and better quarters were desired and the idea of a "cathedral" was even then nascent in the minds of many. But the realization of this idea was still far in the future and another period of temporary residence must intervene before the true "home" project was finally to materialize. About this time the late Norman T. Gassette came forward with a plan for a colossal building, to be erected primarily for commercial purposes, in which all of the Masonic bodies meeting in the business district could find accommodations. Notwithstanding the magnitude of the enterprise and the immense cost at which it was to be carried out, the project met with much favor in many directions. The Consistory, as a prospective tenant, subscribed for $25,000.00 worth of the stock of the building company and later entered into a lease of space, where, it was said, would be provided the "finest Masonic apartments in the world." In due time the building was completed and now constitutes the massive structure located at State and Randolph streets, popularly known as the "Masonic Temple."

In the month of May, 1893, the Consistory moved into its new quarters in the Masonic Temple. The general impression was one of disappointment. The building had been constructed for commercial purposes and however well adapted for such purposes did not meet the requirements of well appointed Masonic halls. For another ten years, however, this was destined to be the home of the Consistory and its co-ordinate bodies, and during this period and in these quarters were developed many of the beautiful liturgic features that now characterize the esoteric work. But almost from the beginning of the occupation there was a spirit of unrest; a desire for something better. This spirit intensified as the ranks continued to augment and the congestion increased, until finally a bold experiment by the organization known as the Mystic Shrine led the way to a realization of the long delayed hope of a "permanent home." Of this, later.

The year 1893 is memorable for many things but particularly from the fact that in this year occurred the World's Columbian Exposition. This circumstance brought many strangers to our doors, visitors being present from all parts of the earth. At a stated rendezvous of the Consistory, held June 25, 1891, an effort was made to provide in some measure for visiting members of the Rite. A committee was appointed to create and disburse a special fund to be raised by voluntary subscriptions, the fund to be employed in such form of entertainment as would "be in keeping with our reputation as Masons and to equal, if not surpass, entertainments that are now being planned by other societies of a kindred nature." An appeal was made by the committee and a generous response followed, and even though the fund did not realize the size anticipated by its projectors, nor the entertainments reach the scale of magnificence they had desired, yet during this memorable year Oriental Consistory, and the Princes of its household, fully sustained Chicago's reputation for hearty and whole-souled hospitality. On September 19th of this year the Supreme Council held its eighty-first annual session in Chicago. It had been intended that this meeting, coinciding as it did with the Fall Convention of Oriental Consistory, should be "the nucleus of a World's Congress of Scottish Rite Masons," and to that end invitations were issued to the Supreme Councils of the world. While the session cannot be said to have reached the dignity just mentioned, it was yet most interesting and important. Many representatives of foreign bodies, both supreme and subordinate, were present as visitors and it may fairly be said that "by friendly intercourse and exchange of fraternal courtesies" the bonds of brotherhood "between Scottish Rite Masons of the different nations" were materially strengthened.

In the year 1896 the Consistory acquired the collection of books and curios popularly known as the Acacia Library, and from that time on has maintained and added to the same, until at present it is one of the largest and most valuable Masonic libraries in the world. By this act the Consistory has proclaimed itself as not only a teacher of Masonry by oral tradition but by academic methods of study as well. It has become a patron and conservator of Masonic literature and art, affording to the candidates for its degrees the most ample means for the thorough and exhaustive study of Masonry in all of its branches. As it teaches in its regular curriculum the learning of the "higher degrees," may we not also say, in view of the advantages it now offers to the Masonic student, that in the scholastic scheme of Freemasonry it should properly be classed as an institution of "higher education"—a Masonic university?

The collection represents the life work of the writer of these lines as a collector of Masonic books. It has grown with him; has taken not a little of his time and much of his thought. May he not be pardoned then for his references to this feature of our organization, and for deeming it of sufficient importance to merit a supplementary chapter devoted wholly to itself?

At the annual reunion in April, 1901, the co-ordinate bodies duly celebrated the Centennial Anniversary of the organization of the first Supreme Council in the world, viz: the body organized at Charleston, S. C., in 1801, and now known as the Supreme Council for the Southern Jurisdiction. They were honored on this occasion by the presence of the Grand Commander of that jurisdiction, Ill. Bro. James D. Richardson, and by that of Ill. Bro. H. L. Palmer, Grand Commander of the Northern Jurisdiction, as well as many other distinguished guests from both sides of the line. In many respects this celebration is regarded as one of the most notable in our history. Never before had so many distinguished Masons come together in our Preceptory and rarely has there been a larger class of candidates (224) or a greater attendance of our members. A medal was struck to commemorate the occasion and the exercises closed with a grand banquet at the Auditorium Hotel. As a tribute of respect to the guest of the evening a beautiful "loving cup," suitably inscribed, was presented to Bro. Richardson, while Bro. Palmer was also remembered by a magnificent gavel of ivory, ebony and gold. This gavel Bro. Palmer now uses when presiding over the Supreme Council and says that he will continue so to use it as long as he shall remain Grand Commander, "in acknowledgment of the loyalty of Oriental Consistory."

An important feature of the social and fraternal life of the Consistory is the annual series of receptions which for many years have been given during the winter months. The primary object of these receptions is to cultivate and foster a closer social intimacy between the members by bringing them together with their families, and this object, to a large extent, has certainly been accomplished. Indeed, they have been unqualified social successes from the start and to their influence may be attributed some measure of the general prosperity that for so long has attended the bodies of the Rite in Chicago. While social functions, of some kind, have always figured in our history, yet the inauguration of a series of annual receptions dates only from the early 80's and the movement seems to have been inspired by Ill. Bro. Robert M. Johnson, familiarly and lovingly known as "Bob" Johnson. This indefatigable Prince, if he did not conceive the project, is yet entitled to the chief credit for the successful conduct of the receptions for many years. But with the name of Bro. Johnson must be coupled that of Ill. Bro. Alfred Russell. For many years the card room was his special province and whatever of success this method of recreation brought to the receptions was in large measure due to his efforts.

Of late there has been a tendency to enlarge the sphere of social intercourse and enjoyment by the members and their families. The spacious and well appointed quarters in which we are now installed afford means for forms of entertainment which heretofore have been lacking, and the concert, lecture, and other lyceum features, will in the future be among the attractions of Consistory life.

During the early 80's there was introduced a pleasing custom, which afterward became very popular, of having the members of a class of candidates photographed together, or in a group. As the classes continued to increase in size, and the group became impracticable, the individual portraits were collected and formed into one picture. Duplicates were retained by the members of the class and the original from which they were made was presented to the Consistory "as a lasting memorial" of the donors. While wall space was ample and the class pictures modest in size these gifts were found very acceptable. But in an evil hour it occurred to the leading spirits of a fall class that their picture should be in some respects, at least, just a little better than that of the class of the preceding spring. Would that some Wolsey had appeared at this juncture to charge them to "fling away ambition." If it be true that "by that sin fell the angels," it is also certainly true that this was the downfall of the class picture. For each succeeding class then vied with its predecessor for something better. Finally the pictures became so large and elaborate in their settings that they could no longer be hung upon the wall, even if space could be found, and so they were placed upon the floor in magnificently carved easels. That marked the limit. And so, the fiat went forth, "The class picture must go," and it went.

Stored away somewhere in the roomy attic of the Preceptory there are scores of class pictures, portraits of old-timers, and other objects that in an earlier and less esthetic age gladdened the eyes of the Princes. They are not of much artistic value, perhaps, but they bring pleasant recollections to many of the elders, nor can they be wholly without interest to the youngers. It would be well if in our present spacious halls we could have one room, if no more, devoted to these historical relics. Indeed, they are much in the nature of ancestral portraits. They represent our predecessors in Masonic lineage, and if we have any pride of ancestry and live not for ourselves alone in this fleeting present, their faces and their memory should not be blotted out.

Immediately after the Great Fire of 1871, a religious society, under the leadership of the Rev. Robert Collyer, erected at the corner of Dearborn avenue and Walton place, in the North Division of the City of Chicago, one of the largest and finest church buildings in the West. The structure was known as Unity Church and for many years, particularly during Mr. Collyer's pastorate, its congregation was one of the largest in the city. But the ever changing character of the residence districts had its usual disastrous effect upon Unity Church. The congregation dwindled and the pastor left his flock for better fields. Finally, further church services became impracticable and the building, together with its attendant mortgage, was placed upon the market. At this juncture the Shriners came along. They were themselves without a home and this discarded church seemed like a special dispensation of Providence in their favor. The building was purchased, remodeled, and adapted to the uses of the followers of the Prophet. The Princes of Oriental Consistory cast longing eyes on the new acquisition of their Moslem brethren. It fulfilled the dream of years, but—the Saracens had captured it and the only hope for its use was a treaty with the enemies of the faith.

Through the efforts of Ill. Bro. J. B. McFatrigh, the Commander in Chief, options were secured on the adjacent property, which eventually passed into the ownership of the Consistory. The substantial mansion on one of the tracts purchased was easily adapted to our wants; a large and commodious banquet hall, and over this a palatial preceptory chamber, was erected in the rear, and at last Oriental Consistory had a home of its own and one that compared favorably with the best in any land. But to still further augment the facilities, both for social intercourse and effective work, a treaty of alliance was negotiated with the Shriners whereby the Consistory has the use of the church building and appurtenances, now called Medinah Temple, for a period of ninety-nine years, and an option of purchase in case the property shall again be placed upon the market. Experts who have inspected the buildings pronounce them the largest and finest structures devoted to Freemasonry anywhere in the world. The first occupation of the new quarters, for the purpose of work, was on the occasion of the semi-annual convention in April, 1905, and on May 4, following, the halls and apartments were formally dedicated to the uses of Scottish Rite Masonry by the Supreme Council.

CHAPTER VI.

THE LIBRARY.

THE PRESENT THE AGE OF LIBRARIES—EARLY EFFORTS AT LIBRARY BUILDING IN ILLINOIS—COLLECTIONS OF ORIENTAL CONSISTORY—ORIGIN AND GROWTH—DONATIONS—CHARACTER AND GENERAL SCOPE OF THE COLLECTION—PRESENT NEEDS OF THE LIBRARY.

IT has been said, that in literature the present time may be aptly termed the “age of libraries.” Never before, perhaps, has the specializing of literary collections been so great or so widespread, and certainly never before has that form of specialization known as “Masonic” libraries received so much attention as at present. But few of the Grand Lodges of the country are now unprovided with some sort of a collection to which resort may be had by its officers and committees for information on mooted points, while in a number of jurisdictions these collections have assumed the form of large and well arranged libraries. The great jurisdiction of Illinois, the second in numerical strength, and with assets in the treasury of its Grand Lodge second to none, is one of the few, however, which does not possess a library nor even the semblance of one. And yet, when Grand Lodge was struggling in the throes of poverty and overcoming the remnants of prejudice left by the anti-Masonic excitement of 1830, the cause of education was a live and engrossing theme with the representatives and a library was regarded as an “imperative necessity.” But, unfortunately, for we cannot regard it in any other light, there seems to have been for many years a marked division of sentiment in Grand Lodge with respect to this field of endeavor. On one side have been the advocates of liberal views with respect to the purport and mission of Freemasonry, on the other the “strict constructionists,” who have ever opposed all attempts to introduce measures for which an express precedent could not be found in Anderson’s Constitutions. As a rule these latter have generally been able to secure the adoption of their own opinions, and, as a consequence, Illinois is in many particulars behind its more enlightened contemporaries.

In a few of the older lodges there will be found a bookcase with a set of Morris' Universal Masonic Library, a part of the files of the Grand Bodies of Illinois, and a few monitors and works on Masonic Jurisprudence. These are mainly the relics of the spasm of "education" which convulsed the jurisdiction during the "fifties." Once in a while some earnest and thoughtful brother succeeds in arousing a languid interest in Masonic literature in the local bodies of his obedience and for a time a genuine effort is put forth to secure a library. But such efforts are usually fitful, short-lived and unproductive of permanent results. As a rule, lodge libraries have not been successful either in this or other jurisdictions. A well kept library implies a librarian, and a Masonic librarian, to be successful, must be a book-worm who works con amore; and, in addition, who possesses a well developed faculty for earnest and persistent begging. Without such a man to direct and manage it, no Masonic library will ever attain any high degree of success or become an active instrument of education.

Not the least interesting of the possessions of Oriental Consistory is its now famous library of Masonic literature. This library had its inception in the desire of the writer of these lines for a broader and more specific knowledge of the Masonic Institution than is afforded in the meager and ofttimes misleading lectures of the Lodge. Accordingly, soon after his initiation he began the collecting of Masonic books. At first these books were of an elementary nature; the received expositions of the monitor compilers and the imaginative histories of Oliver and similar writers. But, with a growing knowledge of the subject came a desire for more thorough and critical investigations, and the first crude attempts at original research. He was further stimulated by the writers of the modern English school of Masonic historical criticism, which at that time had just commenced its labors. As a result his collection grew with years until finally his modest home became too small to properly house the books and other documents he had brought together. A relief from this congestion was afforded in the year 1890, when a social organization composed of Master Masons and known as the "Acacia Club," offered a home for the library with generous assistance in its extension. The collection was then transferred to the Club's house, No. 105 Ashland boulevard, where it remained for the ensuing five years. In 1895 the Club disbanded and for a few months the library lay in storage and without a home. At this juncture the Consistory came forward with an offer of permanent quarters and perpetual care of the collection, and it was accordingly transferred to the Consistory parlors in the Masonic Temple. From thence hitherto it has remained in the custody and under the care of Oriental Consistory and is known to the Craft, and librarians generally, as the "Library of Oriental Consistory."

With the single exception of the Library of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, this is the largest and most valuable collection of Masonic literature in the Middle West. No other Masonic body in the State, either grand or subordinate, possesses anything like it, and owing to the extreme rarity of many of the works it is not probable that any attempt will be made to duplicate it in the future. This collection will remain, therefore, the Masonic Library of the State of Illinois.

From time to time the library has been enriched by the generous donations of other collectors and in this way has practically absorbed nearly all of the private collections. Just prior to its taking over by the Consistory, it acquired from St. Bernard Commandery, K. T., the extensive collection of the late John O. Dickerson. This collection, although consisting in the main of duplicates, was yet of great value in the assistance it afforded for exchanges with other libraries. Since its acquisition by the Consistory it has received the private collections of Bro. John McLaren and the late Bro. Vincent L. Hurlbut. These include many rare and valuable matters relating to the early history of the Craft in this State. Bros. Frank L. Gerwig, Louis Keefer and J. C. Collins have also greatly assisted the library by liberal donations of money, which has been expended by the Librarian for books which have been credited to them as donors. Individual members of the Consistory have also contributed many valuable works. It is difficult to make mention of these latter without including the names of all donors, but a glance over our serial catalogue will show that Bros. John C.

Smith and Gil. W. Barnard are among the most generous of our patrons. The serial catalogue, which is sent to all members of the Consistory, gives the method of acquisition of all of the books therein mentioned, and the names and addresses of all donors.

The library already compares favorably with the best of other jurisdictions, and as time rolls on and the collection grows in size and importance we may reasonably expect that it will eventually become one of the great specialty libraries of the world. Many of its books and pamphlets are now exceedingly rare, a few are almost unique, while there is none that does not possess a positive literary value.

The library is intended, as all libraries should be, as an educational agent. It covers not only the field of Masonry proper, but all cognate subjects, and presents to every inquiring mind almost unlimited opportunity for special investigation. Men are devoting more time than formerly to the study of Freemasonry. They are discovering that beneath the dry husk of ritualism there is a rich kernel; that Masonic history and archæology is a fascinating field for exploration; that the evolution of the Masonic Fraternity is among the most interesting of sociologic phenomena; that the philosophy and symbolism of Masonry are its real secrets, and that these secrets can be discovered only by patient, laborious and well directed effort. This being true, it follows that to afford the means of research, to promote, stimulate and encourage thought, a well-selected library is indispensable.

As before remarked, the collection includes not only the standard works on Freemasonry proper, but also those of its related sciences, as well as other matters of a cognate character. This is essential to a proper understanding of the general theme. As has been well said by the late Albert Pike, "a few rudimental lessons in architecture, a few universally admitted maxims of morality, a few unimportant traditions, whose real meaning is unknown or misunderstood, will no longer satisfy the earnest inquirer after Masonic truths." Hence, the old-time ideas of what should constitute a Masonic library must be discarded. The field of investigation must be enlarged and the searcher must be given more ample opportunities than were formerly considered necessary. With these facts constantly in view the Librarian has added many books that deal with Masonry only indirectly and the library is particularly rich in works treating of the Crusaders, the Ancient Military Fraternities, Heraldry, Medieval Chivalry and Knighthood. Equally marked prominence has been given to Ancient Jewish History, Talmudical literature, and the writings of the Jewish mystics. Architecture, in lines of purely Masonic interest, is well represented, but as the Fraternity is now composed of fairly well educated men, we have touched but lightly the academic ideas involved in the "seven liberal arts and sciences." Symbolism and Philosophy, particularly as they may affect Masonic thought, have not been neglected, and as germane to this purpose the library contains a large number of works relating to the religions of primitive peoples, and to those of the ancient Egyptians and Assyrians. The modern analytic school of Masonic History is represented by all of its principal writers and by copies of the old charges and other documents upon which the students of the Craft are now at work. No American library has more available matter of this character than the Library of Oriental Consistory and the means are ample for original study along the lines of modern Masonic historical and textual criticism. The foregoing will give some faint ideas concerning the extent and scope of our collection, but its true worth can be adequately estimated only by actual inspection and use.

At present the third floor front of the Consistory building has been fitted up for library purposes, but this space does not afford adequate room for the proper display of all of our treasures. Besides books we have many articles of historic and educational value. Old charters, diplomas and passports, some of them dating back to the closing years of the eighteenth century and bearing the signatures of the fathers of this Rite of Freemasonry. Rare and valuable ancient engravings, implements, tools, and other objects employed in the early workings of the Craft, both in our own State and abroad. Not the least interesting is our collection of Masonic aprons, particularly those of the Scottish Rite. Of these latter we have probably one of the finest collections in the world, including specimens from many of the Spanish-American countries. To properly house and display all of these matters requires space. Wherefore let us hope that in the near future we shall see our magnificent collection duly installed in special rooms of its own and so disposed as to be open at all times for use and inspection of the members.

One word in closing. A few of our books were acquired by purchase and the Librarian is still in the market as a buyer of anything that is rare and valuable. But the great bulk of our literary possessions has come to us as freewill offerings. Brethren who have old and rare books, charts, diplomas, medals, aprons and jewels, are not only invited but urged to deposit them in the Library. This is the way in which all great collections are made. And in no better or more secure manner can a man hand down his name to the generations that are to follow. All donations will be credited to the donor in the catalogues and his name will be entered upon the indexes, and years hence, when the literary element of the Craft shall have developed, the student will call down blessings on the heads of those who at this time have rescued and preserved the memorials. If you have no books or other objects of interest, do not, for that reason be despondent. You may still sit with the immortals. The Librarian will accept your cash donation and expend it for works that can be obtained only by purchase. In such event, however, the glory will all be yours and the books will appear in our catalogues and announcements credited to you as donations.

CHAPTER VII.

THE CO-ORDINATE BODIES.

THE HISTORY OF THE CONSISTORY THAT OF THE CO-ORDINATE BODIES—DEVELOPMENT OF RITUALS—OBSERVANCE OF FEAST DAYS AND MASONIC HOLIDAYS—SEMI-ANNUAL CONVENTIONS—EARLY NOMENCLATURE—MEMBERSHIP IN THE EARLY BODIES—MANNER OF ELECTIONS—ORIGIN OF NAMES.

THE history of Oriental Consistory is, to a very large extent, the history of the other co-ordinate bodies of the Rite, for so closely are the interests of the several organizations blended that, except in the minor details of administration, they are not distinguishable. Notwithstanding that they are created by separate charters, and for purposes of administration and control of the degrees are independent bodies, exercising exclusive jurisdiction within their respective spheres, yet, in everything that pertains to the general interest and welfare of Scottish Rite Masonry in Chicago they have ever acted as a unit. Indeed, for all practical purposes they may justly be regarded as constituting but one body with a number of departmental heads. Such being the case, it follows that little can be said concerning the Chapter, Council and Lodge, other than references to purely administrative matters.

It would seem that during the earlier years the larger portion of the interest of the members was centered in the Consistory. While our ranks were thin and the workers few, we can readily understand why this should be so. But in time, as energetic men and competent ritualists were received into the fold, the subsidiary degrees of the Lodge and Council began to be objects of special regard, and then was commenced the process of evolution which has developed the magnificent liturgies and ceremonials we now employ. At first the only degrees conferred in the Lodge of Perfection were the sixth and the fourteenth. The others were communicated. During the year 1868 the first efforts were made to confer all of the degrees, but it does not seem that these efforts can be fairly classed as successful until about the year 1873, when all of the degrees, from the fourth to the fourteenth, were, for the first time in this country, repeatedly and continuously conferred in full ceremonial form. From this time on, under the able management of the illustrious brethren who have successively ruled over it, the works of the Lodge of Perfection have increased in beauty and sublimity. And if we may be permitted to predicate the future upon the past we may safely affirm that the limit of ritualistic perfection has not yet been reached and that the days that are to come will see still further advances on the apparently unsurpassable standards of today.

As in the Lodge, so in the Council and Chapter, there has been a constant tendency to improve on the work of predecessors. Each year has witnessed some development of ritualistic ideas; some advance on previous efforts; some embellishment not before known or practiced. The result has been the production of a magnificent esoteric ceremonial that appeals in strongest terms to the esthetic, moral and religious side of human character; that instructs, and at the same time ennobles.

It would be out of place, in a sketch of this kind, to make special mention of the men whose genius and talents have most contributed to give shape to our present ceremonies. Whatever opinion we may have of the special excellencies of particular brethren cannot be well expressed without seeming to make invidious distinctions and comparisons. For these reasons, and that none may be slighted, the writer has refrained from awarding praise to those whom he yet feels are worthy of it. Suffice it to say, that all have done well; some, perhaps a little better than others, by reason of greater natural endowments, but all have done well and all have contributed in some degree in building up the present ritualistic edifice. A full list of all of the past presiding officers will be found in the appendix.

The stage, as a special adjunct to ritualistic renderings, seems to have been first employed in the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in the representations of tableaux or of dramatic incidents in which the postulant was not himself an actor. This was the full extent of its use by the early ritualists, and this, in the opinion of many, is the only legitimate purpose to which it can be devoted. As a consequence the stage of the old "Egyptian" Chamber in the apartments constructed in 1873 and located at 78 Monroe street, was small and inconspicuous. When the Masonic rooms in this building were remodeled in 1884 a spacious stage, with all necessary theatrical accessories was placed in the East of the new Preceptory, and under the direction of Ill. Bro. H. H. Pond, Commander in Chief, a new cast was given to many of the incidents of the ritual. The chiefs of the co-ordinate bodies followed the lead of Bro. Pond and adopted his ideas of dramatic situations and stage effects. The results, as a rule, were highly satisfactory. The same observations may be made of the general methods employed after the removal of the bodies to the rooms in the building popularly known as the Masonic Temple. But of late, and particularly since the occupation of present quarters, the tendency has been to minimize the work upon the floor and to transfer to the stage much that formerly was there presented. Whether this plan is for the best or otherwise is an open question, yet it would seem that, in some things at least, the old established customs should not be lightly discarded, while to those who are familiar with the work for the past quarter of a century the conviction is strong that certain forms lose their realism and much of their significance when set upon a stage.

These latter remarks apply with special force to the "Camp." In the old days, when workers were few and the 32d grade occupied much of the time and talent of the Consistory, the "Camp of the Grand Masonic Army" seems to have been a most elaborate affair. This is particularly true of Occidental Consistory. The Grand Architect and Engineer of those days was not merely a perfunctory officer. On the days of reception it was his special duty to superintend the setting of the Camp and to see that the bodies forming same were properly stationed. Indeed, the "Camp" seems to have been made a conspicuous figure in those early days and finds frequent allusion in the regulations of the Consistory.

There are a number of days marked for special observance in the calendar of the Scottish Rite, and in former times attempts were made to celebrate the feasts if not to conform to the fasts. But as the bodies increased in numbers the interest in the feast days continued to diminish, until finally their observance wholly ceased.

Not for many years has the Rose Croix Chapter celebrated the feast of the Paschal Lamb, notwithstanding that the ancient regulations say that a meeting for this purpose on Holy Thursday of each year is indispensable. The last feast of this kind seems to have been held on April 10, 1879, at which time Ill. Bro. James E. Church was the Most Wise. The occasion is still recalled by the old-timers as an epoch in the history of the bodies. Whether it is or is not a good plan to keep alive the old Jewish feast of the Pass-over, the writer does not assume to decide, but in view of the peculiar characteristics of the feast, as celebrated under the auspices of Knights of the Rose Croix, and the new symbolism which it embodies, he yet feels that as an expression of fraternity, if nothing more, it should be continued. Incident to the foregoing is the ceremony of extinguishing the lights, but this too has now become only a memory.

The regulations of the Rose Croix degree also provide for a joyous feast on Easter Sunday, followed by the relighting of the candles that have remained extinguished since the previous Thursday. This feast also has passed into desuetude. Spasmodic observances of Easter Sunday occasionally are noted in our records, but these, as a rule consist in Church going or of gatherings in the nature of religious worship and are invariably conducted under the auspices of the Consistory.

In like manner the Constitutions of the Rite provide for two annual feasts by the Princes of Jerusalem. The principal of these is in commemoration of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem of the Ambassadors on their return from Babylon. This feast, unlike the festivals of the Rose Croix, has no special religious significance, neither did it form a part of the ancient ceremonial observances of the Jews. In all of its essential details it is peculiar to Masonry and to the A. A. S. R. The other feast partakes slightly of a Jewish character, being in memory of the frank offerings rendered to God for the rebuilding of the Temple. In its essence, however, this too is strictly Masonic. These feasts vividly recall two of the happiest periods in the legendary history of the Craft. While the writer hereof was presiding over the Council he endeavored to bring these constitutional feasts into use. They were duly observed during the years 1887-88, but, for some reason, the practice was not continued by his successors.

The Constitutions of the Rite provide that the Lodge of Perfection shall hold festivals on June 24th and December 27th, apparently in memory of the Sts. John, to whose service these days are set apart in the calendar of the Church. It would seem that the feast falling on the 24th of June was strictly observed for a number of years, but of late the large amount of work devolving on the officers has crowded out this ceremony except where the day happens to fall on Sunday. On this latter occasion, however, it is still customary to meet and to hold an appropriate service. Let us hope that not only will this practice be continued but that there may be a return to the old usages, and that all of our obligatory feasts will again be duly observed.

The practice of semi-annual conventions of all of the co-ordinate bodies dates back to the early years of the Rite in Chicago, and, in fact, is almost coeval with its introduction. These conventions have acquired the name "reunions," and no one word, perhaps, so fully and explicitly expresses the general character of the gatherings. They bring together many of the brethren that seldom or never attend the regular sessions and in a three days' round of good-fellowship and fraternity cement anew the ties of friendship and keep fresh the old memories of long departed days. No one feature of our social economy has tended more to insure the material welfare and financial success of the bodies and no other agency has been so instrumental in promoting fraternity and true companionship. It would seem also that notwithstanding sessions are held in the day-time, and that these sessions are protracted over a period of three days, the general standard of the ritualistic work and ceremonies is even higher than at the regular weekly meetings of the bodies.

The official name of the premier Consistory was "Occidental Sovereign Consistory of Most Valiant and Illustrious Sublime Commanders of the Royal Secret." Notwithstanding the plethora or high sounding terms, it will yet be observed that the now familiar word "Prince" is missing. This official name appears in the "Statutes and Regulations" of the Consistory published in the year 1858, and it is assumed that it was the name by which the body was chartered. Unofficially, however, the body at that time called itself a Consistory of Sublime Princes, or of Sublime Princes and Commanders, and the word "Prince," as descriptive of the status of membership, is of frequent occurrence in the By-laws.

The word "Preceptory," now employed to designate the Consistorial Chamber, was also unknown to the early "Commanders." In the Statutes and Regulations the place of meeting is called the "Sacred Asylum" or the "Camp." The former term seems to have been employed by all of the co-ordinate bodies, as the Statutes of the Rose Croix Chapter, published in 1865, describes the place of assembly as "our Asylum."

But, perhaps, that which strikes us the most forcibly on looking over what is left of the old records, is the utter absence of the word "Scottish." We have become so accustomed to this word in the nomenclature of the Rite that it is difficult for us to imagine that it has not always formed a part of our official name. As a matter of fact, however, it is a comparatively late development, and seems to have originated in a misconception of the genesis and purport of certain of the degrees. The men who formed the first Supreme Council at Charleston in 1801-2, never heard of it, nor was it known to their immediate successors. But in the so-called Latin Constitutions, published in 1859, the Order is designated as "Antiquus Scoticus Ritus Acceptus," and as these Constitutions were subsequently adopted as the fundamental rule of the Rite by both the Southern and Northern Supreme Councils the word "Scottish" became thereafter an integral part of the official name. In 1857, when Occidental Consistory and its co-ordinate bodies were chartered, the "Sublime degrees," as they were called, were collectively known as the "Ancient and Accepted Rite," and by this general name they were called both in the Supreme Council and all bodies of its obedience.

Membership in the Rose Croix Chapter was divided into the same classes as that of the Consistory, that is, into active and honorary. The active members were limited to thirty-three, but as many honorary and affiliated members might be admitted "as the Chapter may deem expedient." Active members only were required to pay dues. On all applications for degrees the vote was taken viva voce, and every active member had the privilege of "making such remarks as he may think proper." No meeting of the Chapter could be held "without a collection for the poor," and of the fund so collected the Most Wise was the custodian and, generally, the almoner.

There is another peculiar feature observable in the early years of the Chapter, or, at least, one that does not seem to have been common to like bodies of the period. The ancient regulations of the Rite provide for annual elections of the officers, as is now the practice in all of the organizations below the Consistory. But in the Chapter the custom of the Consistory was followed and the officers were elected once in three years on Holy Thursday. This day also marked the end of the Chapter's fiscal year. In the Lodge and Council the elections seem to have been held annually.

From all indications the activities of the early bodies were confined, in the main, to the Consistory and Chapter and in these organizations it does not seem that more than one degree was exemplified.

There is no record of the early members of the Consistory now known to be in existence, but in the fall of the year 1858 Occidental Consistory published its by-laws with the names of its members appended thereto. These names are twenty-three in number and represent the entire Scottish Rite membership of Illinois at that time. A glance over the list shows that the standard of admission must have been high in those days, and that, notwithstanding the exclusive policy then pursued, the flower of the fraternity in Chicago had been gathered into the fold. Of the twenty-three persons named as members and who signed the by-laws, only one is now known to be living, viz.: Ill. Bro. Henry C. Ranney. In the pamphlet containing the "Statutes and Regulations" of Gourgas Chapter, published in 1865, there is a list of members, "active, emeritus and honorary." This list shows thirty-three active and thirty-six honorary members, or a total of sixty-nine. In the absence of other evidence this, presumably, would also represent the entire membership of the Consistory at that time, but in a copy of the Consistory by-laws, published the same year, the membership is given as eighty-two. Why the higher body should have had a larger membership than the lower body from whom its members were drawn is not clear.

Masonry is sometimes described as a luxury. That is, something that can be afforded only by a man of means. If this be true at present, then it certainly was doubly true in the old days. The fees for the Consistory degrees, prior to the merger, were seventy-five dollars, and when we consider the relative value of money in the fifties, as compared with present standards, it will be seen that not many could afford to participate in the labors of the "Sublime Masons." The fee for the Rose Croix Chapter was fifteen dollars and for the Council of Princes of Jerusalem a fee of forty dollars was exacted. In the Lodge of Perfection the fee was seventy-five dollars. It will thus be seen that membership in the "Ancient and Accepted Rite" could fairly be classed as a valuable asset.

It may be that the comparatively high cost of the degrees had something to do with the slow growth displayed during the early years of the bodies, but the real and efficient cause must be found in those ideas of exclusiveness that for so many years were rigorously observed. As a sample of the application of this rule of careful selection and exclusion we may note the practice followed in the matter of petitions. It was the duty of the Grand Secretary, within twenty-four hours after the reception of a petition for degrees or membership, to inform each member of the Lodge, either in person or by mail, of the fact of such reception and to state the time at which the report of the Committee of Investigation would be due. And it was further made the duty of every member so informed to be present and vote, or, in case he was unable to be present, "to signify in writing to the Grand Secretary his decision in the matter, yea or nay." In view of the procedure respecting petitions which has been followed in the Lodge of Perfection during recent years, it will be perceived that, in some things at least, there has been a partial return to the old ways.

The secret ballot, with which we are now so familiar, does not seem to have been employed in the early days. All applications, whether for degrees or membership, were first referred to a committee for investigation. At the next stated meeting thereafter the committee was required to report, and thereupon, if the report was favorable, an election was had in which the vote was taken by yeas and nays. This was the method employed in all of the bodies. In all cases a unanimous vote was required for election. If the candidate did not come forward to claim the benefit of his election "within three stated meetings" thereafter, he was obliged to again submit to the ordeal of the ballot.

The leading spirit in the early Scottish Rite Masonry of Chicago was Ill. Bro. Chas. R. Starkweather. He was not only the Commander in Chief of the Consistory, but the presiding officer as well of all of the other bodies. Indeed, never before or since has the "one man" power in Masonry been so fully exemplified. But in view of the distinguished brethren who were associated with him, men like Wm. B. Herrick, J. V. Z. Blaney, Hosmer A. Johnson, G. W. Deering, and others who were prominent in the bodies of the York Rite, we must conclude that this leadership was but a tribute to his genius and skill as a worker as well as his ability as an organizer. Without in any manner disparaging any of the men whose names are connected with the inception and early exploitation of the Rite, we may still accord to him the title of "Father of the Scottish Rite in Chicago."

We are accustomed to speak of the Consistory, Chapter, Council and Lodge as "co-ordinate" bodies. Indeed, they are so classed in the heading of this chapter. This would imply that they are all of the same rank and that all stand, as respects each other, on the same plane of equality. At present this is true. There is no precedence save in the sequence of degrees, but this does not affect the standing of the bodies nor render one inferior to the other. But however true this may be of the present it is not true of the early years. By the ancient regulations, the Council of Princes of Jerusalem enjoyed many privileges and its members were given many immunities that are now denied to them. These ancient privileges antedate the formation of the present Rite of thirty-three degrees and extend back to the times of the old "Rite of Perfection." When the new Rite was formed by the "Princes and Chiefs of Sublime Masonry," in the years 1801-2, the ancient privileges of the Princes of Jerusalem were conceded to them and these privileges, in theory at least, were still enjoyed by the Princes at the time of the institution of the bodies of the Rite in Chicago. Among these privileges was the right to superintend the Lodges of Perfection, which, for most purposes, were considered as attached to the Council. This suzerainty seems to have been exercised by Illinois Council over

Van Rensselaer Lodge, and in many ways we may observe a survival of the old ideas of the preceding century with respect to the powers, rights and prerogatives of the Princes.

Among the few relics of the past that have been spared to us is a copy of Statutes and Regulations of the "Grand Council of Illinois" of Princes of Jerusalem, published in 1857. From this it would seem that the ancient duty imposed on Councils "to inspect and watch over, with due care and fidelity," the Lodge placed under its superintendence "and see that its work is done in conformity with the landmarks of the Order," was being duly performed by Illinois Council, and that the administration of Van Rensselaer Lodge was virtually being conducted by the Council.

The term "co-ordinate" nowhere appears in the old Statutes and Regulations, nor in the literature of the Rite prior to the consolidation of the rival Supreme Councils in 1867. Since that time, however, it has been extensively employed and the old supervisory powers of the Council have been abolished.

Possibly a word or two in explanation of the names of the various bodies may not be out of place in this connection. It will be remembered that the original Consistories were called Occidental and Chicago, respectively. The reasons that led to the selection of both of these names are obvious. When the first consistory was established in Chicago it marked the Western limit of Scottish Rite Masonry. Occidental, therefore, was a most appropriate name to bestow upon it. When the rival consistory was established it was regarded by its promoters as the Scottish Rite body of the city and hence, to mark this superiority, it was given a local setting and called Chicago Consistory. During the period following its establishment and until the union this idea seems to have been retained and its co-ordinate bodies were usually described by the same term to distinguish them from their rivals.

Owing to the feelings of pride, prejudice, and even animosity, which commingled at the time of the merger, it would seem that the members of neither consistory would accept the name of the other. Hence, notwithstanding the articles of union expressly provided that Chicago Consistory should surrender its charter and its members be received in full fellowship by Occidental Consistory, thereby contemplating, in fact, an absorption of the younger by the elder body, the plan, nevertheless, was not in all respects satisfactory. Therefore, to appease the clamorous and placate the dissatisfied a new consistory, with a new name, was formed. Just why the name "Oriental" should have been chosen does not appear, but as it represented the antipodal idea, that is, was the farthest possible removed from the old name, we may reasonably infer that this circumstance had much to do with its selection.

The two original chapters were called "Gourgas" and "Cœur de Leon." The former was named for the venerable J. J. J. Gourgas, who for many years was himself the Northern Supreme Council and who alone preserved its identity when it had been abandoned by its former members. The latter probably chose its name through mere caprice and because it sounded well. But it was a mere fanciful epithet wholly without significance or meaning in Scottish Rite Masonry. Fortunately the old historic name of Gourgas was retained by the consolidated body. This, however, was the result of a compromise. The Councils were named "Illinois" and "Chicago," respectively. When the union was effected it was agreed that the name of the elder Chapter (Gourgas) should be retained for the consolidated Chapter and that of the younger Council (Chicago) for the consolidated Council, and by these names the present bodies are known.

The original Lodges were "Van Rensselaer" and "Chicago." For the consolidated lodge the old name was retained. Here, again, the selection was fortunate. K. H. Van Rensselaer was the pioneer missionary of Scottish Rite Masonry in the West. It was through his efforts that the first bodies were established in Chicago and it seems not only right but natural that his name should remain associated with the organizations that he aided in calling into life. While he was comparatively but a minor character in the early drama he yet may be classed among the fathers and we have done well in perpetuating the historic names of the founders of our modern system.

CHAPTER VIII.

CIVIC CORPORATIONS.

INCORPORATION OF THE CHICAGO BODIES—PROPRIETY THE ACT—EFFECT OF INCORPORATION—DATES OF CIVIC CHARTERS—POWERS OF CORPORATIONS—STATUS OF THE BODIES.

IN addition to the warrants of constitution from the Supreme Council each of the co-ordinate bodies of the Rite located in Chicago is also a body corporate and politic under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois. The propriety of the civil incorporation of Masonic bodies has long been a mooted question, and the more conservative among the Craft have always held that the practice is wrong in principle and dangerous in fact. By virtue of such incorporation a subordinate body becomes, for many purposes, the peer of its superior. It possesses a number of rights, privileges and franchises that are wholly distinct from and independent of, those derived under its warrant of constitution. It acquires a legal existence that cannot be terminated except by the State, and then only for a violation of municipal law. This character, it would seem, is now possessed by each of the Chicago bodies.

Oriental Consistory, S. P. R. S., was incorporated February 15, 1882. Gourgass Chapter of Rose Croix, De-H-R-D-M., was incorporated Nov. 13, 1883. Chicago Council of Princes of Jerusalem was incorporated Nov. 13, 1883, and Van Rensselaer Grand Lodge of Perfection was incorporated July 7, 1881, each of the bodies receiving the corporate names respectively as above set forth. The object of the corporation in each case, as stated in the declaration filed in the office of the Secretary of State, is "to incorporate the members of [the body named] into a legal corporation for the purpose of advancing and promoting the interests of Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite Masonry, at Chicago, in the State of Illinois." The management of each of the corporations is vested in a Board of Five Directors who are elected annually by the members. It will be observed that this is not a case of dual corporations, one subsisting by virtue of a warrant from the Supreme Council and one by virtue of a charter from the State, but the Masonic body seems to have been merged into the Civic body. However, instances of this kind are not uncommon in Illinois. In fact the Grand Lodge is a conspicuous example.

HENRY C. RANNEY, 33°,

By the fact of incorporation the bodies are now enabled to sue and be sued at law; to own real and personal property; to borrow money and execute pledges therefor, and, generally, to exercise the powers of juristic persons. The control of the funds and management of the affairs of the corporations is vested in the Directors. Thus far no evil effects have resulted from the incorporation of the bodies, while positive benefits have been secured in the facility with which both real and personal property has been acquired, and in the exemption of the members from personal liability for debts contracted by the officers and agents. The title to all of the property of the bodies, including the Preceptory on Dearborn avenue, is vested in these legal corporations.

Whether the bodies which meet in the Preceptory, confer degrees, receive and disburse money, transact business of a commercial nature, incur debts and pay outstanding obligations, are voluntary associations formed under a license from the Supreme Council or bodies politic and corporate existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, are questions for the lawyer and not for the historian. It would seem, however, that all of the advantages derived from incorporation might have been secured by the formation of an auxiliary association. This association, with a civic charter, could hold the property and funds, contract and pay debts, and, generally, perform all of the functions of a juristic person necessary or expedient in the interests of the co-ordinate bodies. In such event there would be no need of incorporation for the bodies and no question with respect to their status.

As the civic corporations represent only the business side of Masonry they offer no incentives for the reviewer's pen. Their history lies mainly in a cash book and ledger, a few title deeds, and the record of the annual elections of their officers.

CHAPTER IX.

THE COLLEGE OF THIRTY-THIRDS.

CLASSIFICATION OF MEMBERSHIP—STATUS OF THE INSPECTORS-GENERAL—DIVISION OF RANKS—FORMATION OF THE COLLEGE—OBJECTS AND PURPOSES—RESULTS ACCOMPLISHED BY THE COLLEGE—PRESENT CONDITION.

ORIENTAL CONSISTORY is composed of "Princes of the Royal Secret, 32d." But, incidentally, it also includes a number of gentlemen who are "Inspectors-General 33d" and who claim an honorary membership in the Supreme Council. For all practical purposes these gentlemen are merely 32ds but they serve the ornamental, and, possibly, to some extent useful purpose, of visiting diplomas and sitting on the dais in dignified array on the occasion of special functions. The 33ds are classified as "active" and "honorary." The "actives" are, in fact, members of the Supreme Council and as such, under the constitution of the Rite, are a superior class. While holding membership in the Consistory as 32ds, they also retain their prerogatives as 33ds and members of the Supreme Council. At times this duality has been productive of friction and the records of both the Consistory and the Council of Deliberation bear witness to the fact of frequent strained relations in the past. Nor have the conflicts always been between the 32ds and 33ds. The Inspectors-General have had little differences between themselves, growing out of opposing views respecting the character of their several positions.

One of these latter episodes culminated in the year 1880 and resulted in the formation of a body theretofore wholly unknown to Scottish Rite Masonry, and, for that matter, never heard from since. In this year there was organized a fellowship known as the "Illinois College of Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General." The primary object of the College, which was composed wholly of "honoraries," seems to have been to regulate the conduct of the "actives." The call for the organization meeting recited that in order to "have an opportunity for interchange of opinions" as well as for the advancement of the fraternal principles of the grade, an association was desirable, and those interested were invited to attend a meeting to be held March 19, 1880.

In response to this call practically all of the "honoraries" in the city came together in solemn conclave on the evening of the day above named. Ill. Bro. Gil. W. Barnard was elected Chairman and Ill. Bro. Amos Pettibone became the Secretary. The subject of the call was freely discussed and the decision was reached that matters had come to such a pass that an organization of the Honorary 33ds of the State was imperatively necessary. A committee was therefore appointed to prepare a constitution or plan of organization, with instructions to present same at a future meeting. This duty the committee duly performed, and at a meeting held on Tuesday, April 13, 1880, the following declaration was adopted as the basis of organization :

The Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General of the thirty-third and last degree of A. A. S. R., honorary members of the Supreme Council, Northern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, desirous of being more closely united in the strong bonds of brotherly love and affection, and also advancing the lofty liberal Christian principles of our order, do hereby form ourselves into an association, to be styled the Illinois College of Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General.

A brief code of by-laws was then adopted for the government of the association, and this, practically, is all that the record discloses either of objects or efforts. The College maintained an active existence for several years and, presumably, did much to "unite the strong bonds of brotherly love and affection," as well as to "advance the lofty liberal Christian principles of our order." Some of the old-timers say it did more, but of what that more consisted they are generally very reticent. But, apparently, having accomplished the work for which it was organized it lapsed into a condition of "innocuous desuetude," in which condition it still remains.

The organization of auxiliary or subsidiary sodalities within the regular bodies is, at best, of doubtful propriety. In many instances their influence is positively pernicious and it is difficult to imagine cases in which any real necessity for their existence can be found. We must assume, however, from the high character of the men who composed it, that the College was an exception to the rule; that it came into being to supply an actual and urgent need; and that it fulfilled the mission for which it was created. It is contended by some of the organizers that the College is still in existence; that its functions are merely suspended; and that, should circumstances again arise that call for its intervention, it will resume its former activities and again become a potent influence in shaping the destinies of Scottish Rite Masonry in Chicago.

CHAPTER X.

THE COUNCIL OF DELIBERATION.

COUNCIL OF DELIBERATION A STATE BODY—IS THE SUCCESSOR OF THE EARLY GRAND CONSISTORY—ORGANIZATION OF THE COUNCIL—WORK OF THE COUNCIL IN RELATION TO ORIENTAL CONSISTORY—PROTESTS AND MEMORIALS BY THE CONSISTORY—ACTION OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL.

NO HISTORY of Scottish Rite Masonry in Chicago would be complete without some notice of the Council of Deliberation.

In strictness this is a State body, composed of the chiefs of the several Consistories and co-ordinate bodies located in Illinois. But its meetings, with few exceptions, have always been held in Chicago and its real life may be said to have come from the various Chicago organizations.

The Council of Deliberation is the direct outgrowth of the policy pursued by the organization known as the Hays Supreme Council. This organization, unlike its rival the Van Rensselaer Supreme Council, did not charter Consistories and other bodies direct, but created a number of intermediary supervisory bodies to whom it delegated the power of chartering subordinates. These supervisory organizations were known at first as "Grand Consistories." At a session of the Supreme Council, held at the City of New York on Dec. 14, 1866, "on motion of Ill. Bro. Sheville, charters for the Grand Consistories of Illinois and Indiana were authorized to be issued, and to bear date of the time of their institution." As a matter of fact the Grand Consistory of Illinois, with Ill. Bro. Walter A. Stevens as Commander in Chief, had been instituted some months prior to this action. Just how this was accomplished is not very clear, but it would seem that Bro. Sheville had plenary authority to grant "Letters Patent and Warrants of Authority" during his Western missionary trip in the summer of 1866, and that his actions in the exercise of this authority were afterward confirmed by the Supreme Council. We know, in a general way, that this Grand Consistory met and transacted business. That it granted charters for Consistories at Chicago, Waukegan, De Kalb, Yates City, and Monmouth. But this is almost the full extent of our knowledge. No record of its meetings has been preserved, and upon the union of the rival Supreme Councils in 1867 it seems to have passed out of existence.

The regulations of the United Supreme Council provided, however, for local supervisory bodies, with extremely limited powers, known as "Councils of Deliberation." In pursuance of this authority the chiefs of the Rite assembled at the City of Chicago, in their first Council of Deliberation, on April 7, 1869. From thence hither-to the Council has held regular sessions. There is little, however, in the record of this body to engage the pen of the historian. Having practically no legislative powers its sessions are brief and in the main uneventful. All matters involving questions of administrative policy are disposed of in the Supreme Council.

From its organization in 1869 until the year 1884 the regular meetings were held annually. At the session of this year the stated meetings were changed from annual to triennial. This change has continued until the present, although there have been several special annual meetings during the period.

There are a few items in the meager journal of the sessions which have a direct interest for the members of Oriental Consistory. At the special session of Jan. 27, 1871, the object of the conference was to devise plans for the consolidation of the Chicago bodies, a project that was happily realized in the manner detailed in a former part of this work.

At the session of 1872 a resolution was adopted, which, in effect, looked toward the re-establishment of the Grand Consistory. The Supreme Council, however, had no use for Grand Consistories and the ancient body was not revived.

The bestowal of the honorarium of the thirty-third degree has always been a source of much contention and often of much dissatisfaction in this district. During the year 1875 the dissatisfaction seems to have reached an acute stage, and at the session of the Council of Deliberation of that year Ill. Bro. T. T. Gurney introduced a series of resolutions the gist of which is contained in the following :

Resolved, By this Council of Deliberation, that we respectfully pray the Supreme Council of this jurisdiction that no further additions be made to its honorary membership from this district unless substantial proof be presented to that body that the elevation of the applicant will be in the interests of the Rite.

Resolved, That we further pray that the Supreme Council adopt some method of determining a brother's eligibility for such distinction that shall secure the objects sought for by the foregoing.

These resolutions seem to have been the outgrowth of peculiarly arbitrary actions on the part of certain of the active members of the Supreme Council in this district, which actions, it is said, produced much dissatisfaction among the rank and file of the Consistory. They were intended as a protest against hasty, ill considered and capricious nominations for the honorarium, and were endorsed by the best element in the bodies.

The resolutions were adopted by the Council of Deliberation and duly transmitted to the Supreme Council. They were by that body referred to a committee, which, it seems, made a report but no recommendation on the subject, "reserving it for more mature deliberation."

About this time also Oriental Consistory was chafing under the restraints placed upon it with respect to the right of discipline over its members who were also Inspectors-General of the Supreme Council. The offending "33ds" denied the right of the Consistory to arraign them at its bar or to sit in judgment upon them. Whereupon the Council of Deliberation passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Council of Deliberation that the subordinate bodies of the Rite, Consistories, Chapters, Councils or Lodges should be authorized to try any of their members, of whatever grade, for immoral conduct, or any offense against the Statutes, Regulations of the Rite, or the By-Laws of the bodies of which they are members.

This resolution was likewise committed to the Deputy for transmission to the Supreme Council. In due time the latter body considered the resolution and decided that, "Inspectors-General shall be amenable to the Supreme Council only." This has continued to be the rule ever since. The soundness of the rule has often been questioned, and it is conceded that it is opposed in principle to the ancient regulations of the Masonic Institution. But, it is contended, the Scottish Rite is peculiar to itself and the rule, having been once announced by the superior power, is binding and obligatory until rescinded or annulled by the Supreme Council. The matter will be better understood, perhaps, by the comments of the Deputy, Ill. Bro. H. A. Johnson, at the following session of the Council of Deliberation. After referring to the action of the Supreme Council he said:

I beg leave, in this connection, to call your attention to the radical difference between the organic law of this Rite and that of the York Rite. In the one the source of power is from above, from the representative of Frederick. In the other each individual lodge is a sovereign, and the superior bodies are made up of representatives, and have such powers as are delegated to them. In my judgment Grand Lodges even are not an exception to this idea. The two systems cannot be brought to the same methods of government or of action without destroying the fundamental idea of one or the other. I do not see any probability of good from any effort to combine them. State Consistories, even our Councils of Deliberation, are, to some extent, the embodiment of such an effort, but it is distinctly understood that the Supreme Council is supreme, that this word is not simply a useless prefix, retained to gratify an amour propre, but that it indicates quite a different idea from the word "grand" as applied to the representative or so-called superior bodies of the York Rite.

But Oriental Consistory was still chafing under the restraints imposed upon it, and the session of the Council in 1877 is interesting in several particulars growing out of this fact. The salient feature of the session was the presentation of the following "memorial," which not only explains itself but also furnishes a fair clue to the ideas which were then paramount in the Consistory:

ANCIENT ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE, VALLEY OF CHICAGO,
April 26, 1877.

The Members of Oriental Consistory, S. . P. . R. . S. . Thirty-second Degree, of the Valley of Chicago, sitting in regular Assembly, this 26th day of April, 1877, entertaining a profound interest in the welfare of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, and humbly declaring as the earnest

THEODORE T. GURNEY, 33°,
COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, 1873-4-5.

of this representation our devotion to the Supreme Powers thereof, and heartily desiring to place such Powers in active sympathy and co-operation with the primary elements of their strength and perpetuity, and believing that this desirable consummation cannot be attained without fraternal concessions of rights and prerogatives which are at the basis of every organization resting in the immutable principles of our Masonic professions; and further believing that our useful existence in the interests of humanity is dependent upon an acquiescence in the advanced thought which recognizes the dignity and importance of the laborers that furnish the elementary strength and security to all beneficent and fraternal associations, and also believing that our Supreme Authorities are not adverse to giving attention to respectful presentation of the settled convictions of their subordinates; therefore,

Resolved, That the present system of taxing Subordinate Bodies of the Rite, in the absence of the most remote representation in the law-making powers thereof, is a perpetual menace to their prosperity and our unrestrained devotion to its interests.

Resolved, That we earnestly pray our Supreme Council that such changes may be perfected in its Organic law as will secure to the Bodies of its obedience equitable representation in the legislative powers of the Rite.

Resolved, That should our Supreme Powers deem such concessions incompatible with the welfare of the Rite, that all dues or other taxation now being imposed upon its Subordinate Bodies be abolished.

Resolved, That a copy of these presents be furnished for the consideration of our Sister Bodies of this State, and that a further copy be presented to our next Council of Deliberation by the Ill. Commander-in-Chief of this Consistory.

Attest: JAMES A. T. BIRD, 32°,
Grand Secretary.

[Seal.]

It will be perceived that "revolutionary tendencies" were rife in Oriental Consistory at that time, but when we see the honored names that were supporting the movement we must conclude that there were good and sufficient reasons therefor; that the movement was not a mere caprice on the part of a few, and that abuses of power which had become intolerable had at last led to open resistance.

The memorial was received and adopted, and a copy furnished to the Deputy with the request that it be presented to the Supreme Council for its consideration. The memorial was presented but the Supreme Council took no other action thereon than to grant permission to the memorialists to withdraw same.

Some few years before, Oriental Consistory had adopted a semi-military uniform and the employment of military equipments. By general consent this uniform was adopted by neighboring Consistories and finally it received the approval of the Supreme Council. But about this time, as related in another part of this history, there was a movement looking toward its "alteration and improvement." As a result the Council passed the following:

WHEREAS, This Council of Deliberation believing that the high character of this Rite will be more fully sustained, and its usefulness better promoted, by retaining the present uniform, in which appropriateness, durability and richness are combined in a desirable manner; therefore,

Resolved, That our Illustrious Deputy, together with all the active members from Illinois of the Supreme Council, are most respectfully requested to use their influence that no change be made in the present uniform of a Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret, thirty-second degree.

No change was made and the uniform, with an ever dwindling sentiment in its favor, has remained as originally adopted.

The session of 1883 was remarkable for several particulars. In the first place, Ill. Bro. H. H. Pond, an "honorary" 33d presided as a "Special Deputy." This resulted from a "disagreement" among the "actives," and is the only instance of the kind on record, in this district at least. The session was further remarkable from the fact that the Council took it upon itself to nominate persons for the honorarium. On motion of Ill. Bro. H. C. Ranney it was Resolved, That a committee of five be raised to nominate and report, to an adjourned meeting of the Council, names for the thirty-third degree, and that the same committee present a plan for the manner of electing them.

A committee was accordingly raised which duly reported back the names of five persons as suitable candidates for the honor, and recommended that the election be by secret ballot. A ballot was thereupon taken and the names recommended by the committee received the unanimous approval of the Council. So far as the record discloses this was the only time the method was ever attempted and it was possible at this time only from the fact that certain differences between the active members of the Supreme Council prevented concerted action among themselves. All of the nominees of the Council were subsequently accepted and crowned by the Supreme Council.

As before remarked, however, there is little in the transactions of this body to engage the historian's pen, and particularly is this true with respect to matters that have a direct bearing upon Oriental Consistory. The foregoing brief resume presents, substantially, the incidents in which the Consistory directly figures.

An oath of fealty shall be taken and signed by every brother admitted from another Jurisdiction, and by every candidate receiving the Fourteenth degree, and may also be required by the presiding officer or by the body, of every candidate receiving the Sixteenth, Eighteenth and Thirty-second degrees.

When deemed necessary said oath may, by the presiding officer of any body, be required of any visitor.

Such oath is in form as follows :

"I, the undersigned, do hereby promise on my word of honor, and swear true Faith, Allegiance, and Fealty to the SUPREME COUNCIL OF SOVEREIGN GRAND INSPECTORS-GENERAL of the Thirty-third and last degree for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America, sitting at its Grand East in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, of which the ILLUSTRIOUS HENRY L. PALMER (or the M.:P.: Sovereign Grand Commander for the time) is the Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commander, and will support and abide by its Constitution, Statutes, Orders and Decrees.

"That I will hold allegiance to the said SUPREME COUNCIL and be loyal thereto, as the SUPREME AUTHORITY OF THE RITE so long as I may continue to reside within its Jurisdiction; will hold ILLEGAL and SPURIOUS every other body that may be established within its Jurisdiction, claiming to be a SUPREME COUNCIL; and every other body of said Rite within the same Jurisdiction that does not hold its powers mediately or immediately from said SUPREME COUNCIL, and will hold no communication whatever in Scottish Rite Masonry with any member of the same nor allow them to visit any body of the Rite of which I may be a member; and I will dispense justice to my brethren according to the laws of equity and honor.

"And should I violate this, my solemn Vow and Pledge, I consent to be expelled from Masonry, and all rights therein and in any body of the Rite, and to be denounced to every body of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite in the world as a traitor and forsworn.

“And may God aid me to keep and perform the same. Amen.”

DEGREES IN THE A.·A.·S.·RITE.

The first three degrees of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry are Apprentice, Fellow-Craft or Companion, and Master Mason. In countries where this Rite exclusively prevails, these, as well as the succeeding eleven degrees, are given in the Lodge of Perfection; in the United States the Supreme Councils require that the first three degrees be exclusively administered by the Symbolic Lodges, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodges as the only authentic power, and deem it proper, also, that the whole of Symbolic Masonry should unite in the representative system of Grand Lodges.

The Ineffable Degrees begin with the Fourth, and extend to and include the Fourteenth. These degrees can only be conferred in a legally constituted
